PREFATORY NOTE

This Volume contains the Proceedings of the President and Council of Fort St. George from 31st December 1751 to 30th December 1752 and is the eightieth Volume of the Series "Diary and Consultation Books", Public Department.

As in the previous Volume for 1751, difficult or obsolete terms have been explained in the foot-notes, a table of shipping has been appended and an introduction has been written describing in the main the events or transactions recorded in the Volume.

The new Calendar was introduced in this year by an Act of Parliament in virtue of which 11 days were omitted in the beginning of September. The day after Wednesday, the 2nd September, was called Thursday, the 14th September, instead of the 3rd September. Consequently the dates mentioned in this Volume from 31st December to 2nd September inclusive, are of the old style, while those from 14th September fall under the new style. This distinction applies also to the dates given in the introduction and shipping table.

The gaps noticed in the original Volume have been filled up by typescripts supplied by the courtesy of the India Office.

The manuscript Volume has been mended and is in a fair state of preservation.

INTRODUCTION.

1752 is the year of brilliant victories but of great embarrassments for the English. This is made sufficiently clear in the Military Consultations which have already been published. The coming of Mysore, the Marathas and Tanjore to the aid of Muhammad'Ali at Trichinopoly, the arrival of Major Lawrence on the scene, the retreat of Law and Chanda Sahib into Srirangam, Clive's successes at Samiavaram, Manoji's[1] taking of Coiladdy, the reduction of Pitchunda and the defeat and capture of D'Auteuil by Clive at Volcondah, all these occurring in quick succession dis-spirited Law and reduced Chanda Sahib to despair. Chanda Sahib in attempting to escape, fell a prisoner in the hands of Manoji, the Tanjore General, and was by him beheaded. Soon after Law surrendered. The star of Dupleix seemed suddenly to wane. But as suddenly the allied cause met with severe rebuffs. Nandi Raja the Dalavai of Mysore insisted on the restoration of Trichinopoly in accordance with the secret compact made by the Nawab, which the Nawab at first endeavoured to evade, and subsequently refused. The Marathas under Morari Rao began to waver, now helping the allies and now the enemies but always searching for money and plunder. Meanwhile Major Kinnier made an unsuccessful attempt on Jinji. A bitter misunderstanding arose between Lawrence and Saunders. And notwithstanding Lawrence's victory at Bahur and Clive's successes at Covelong and Chingleput the year closed with great uncertainty. Dupleix remained still resourceful, full of expedients, and refused to accommodate with Muhammad' Ali. Bussy's successes in the Deccan threatened to bring Salabat Jang into the Carnatic. The Nawab had but few adherents. The King of Tanjore had withdrawn his forces from the field: Manoji had fallen out of favour. The Dalavai of Mysore had plotted, tried to take the city by surprise and, having failed, joined the enemy. The Marathas had likewise meditated defection and abandoned the Nawab; while the lesser country powers, the poligars, were in no mood either to pay him tribute or to acknowledge his authority. Muhammad' Ali had indeed become solely dependant on the English. Nothing can illustrate better the political situation at the close of the year than the few trenchant sentences in which Saunders and his Council conveyed their sentiments to Fort St. David. "The Nawab's affairs seem to be perplexed, his people not paid, forts out of repair, and his amuldars quite negligent . . . . . Money is the greatest difficulty we have to surmount. . . . . Mysore King and Marathas are not his friends . . . and very probably will join the French. . . . . they might be treated as enemies. The King of Tanjore . . . . . will not join the Nawab as soon as we could wish . . . . . Ours (our forces) are greatly superior to any the French have now, but not if their detachment at Aurangabad should join them[2]."

In this turbulent atmosphere it was not to be expected that the Company's commercial concerns would flourish. War and political unrest disorganized the country, injured the investment, depleted the treasury and originated a host of administrative measures. The Public Consultations which deal primarily with these matters fall into two sharp divisions: those of Fort St. David during the first three months of 1752 when the seat of the Presidency was still there and those of Fort St. George from April onwards when Madras once more became the headquarters on the Coast of Coromandel. They throw a good deal of light on one important subject, the character of Saunders, who continued as Governor throughout the year. We find him a man of immense capacity, vigilant, sagacious, prompt and quick to devise measures to meet the most embarrassing situations in which the Company's affairs were placed. A strict administrator, always paying the greatest respect to orders from Home, he did not scruple to set them aside whenever they contravened justice and good policy. Behind his hard exterior there lurked a heart at once warm and generous. In the art of driving men, he was a master. Even amidst the din and bustle of warfare, he introduced some reforms in the management of the Company's concerns both at the Presidency and at the Subordinate Factories. This is all the more creditable when it is remembered that his Council alike at Fort St. David and at Madras was condemned to frequent changes in its personnel.

When the year opens he was assisted at Fort St. David by a Council of five members, Richard Starke, Charles Boddam, Henry Powney, George Pigot and Alexander Wynch. By the end of January, Richard Prince, the Deputy Governor of Madras, having resigned, Starke was appointed in his place[1]. In less than two months, Pigot left for Vizagapatam as Chief of the Council there[2]. Then on the 14th March, the Durrington, Captain Richard Drake, arrived from England bringing two newly appointed Councillors, William Cockell and William Kinnier and Stringer Lawrence as the Commander of the army; and the orders of the Company for the removal of the Presidency to Fort St. George. It was resolved to effect the transfer in the beginning of April, and to facilitate it every arrangement was made. Instructions were issued to prevent confusion in the winding up of monthly accounts at both places[3]. Madras was ordered to put the Mint in readiness[4]. A new Council for Fort St. David was formed to consist of William Cockell, Thomas Cooke, Dawsonne Drake, Robert Sloper and Peter St. Paul. Rules were framed for the delivery of charges of the old Councillors to the new[5]. This done, Saunders, with Major Kinnier and Lieutenant Brohier, the Engineer, arrived by the Fort St. David at Madras on the 5th[6]. Here the Council at first consisted of Saunders, Starke, Thomas Cooke and John Smith. For some time to come, Boddam, Powney and Wynch who were appointed its members were delayed by business at Fort St. David. The minor employments had to be filled up during their absence: but the major ones, the charges of the members of the Council, were defined after the arrival of Wynch, about the middle of May. Starke was nominated Import and Export Warehousekeeper, Boddam Paymaster and Military Paymaster, Powney Sea Customer and Accountant, Wynch Storekeeper and Military Storekeeper and Smith Land Customer, Rental General and Scavenger[7]. Soon after, Powney arrived[8]. But Boddam who came in the beginning of July remained only for a few days since both Cockell at St. David and Cooke at Madras (who had a seat in the Fort St. David Council) were sick. Cooke sufficiently recovered to accompany Boddam on his return, but Cockell having died in the meanwhile, Starke was sent there as Deputy Governor and Boddam came back finally to Madras only in the first week of August[9]. It may be noted that Lawrence and Kinnier always sat at the Board whenever they were in Madras. Kinnier claimed a superior rank to that of Starke on the ground that the Directors had appointed him third and Starke fourth of the Council. But the Board observing that the orders from Home specifically mentioned that he was not to rise higher than the third of the Council, while Starke was actually second for the time being, unanimously disallowed his claim[10]. The disappointed Major defeated and wounded in his attempt on Jinji[11], contracted an illness and died on the morning of the 9th October at Madras[12]. Saunders and his Council ordered him a funeral performed with all honours due to his rank as third of the Council and Major of the Madras Garrison[13]. Towards the end of the year Boddam represented the heaviness of his duties, which included those of Starke since his departure to Fort St. David. It was then ordered that Powney should take charge of the Import Warehouse, and Smith of the Military Paymaster, from the 1st of next year[1].

The proceedings of Saunders and his Council at Fort St. David have a special value as these and the letters to and from the Presidency alone tell us what was happening in Madras during the first quarter of the year. For, the main series, the Consultations of Fort St. George, of that period are missing. The Presidency, however, had to deal not only with the Madras affairs but with the affairs of the Subordinate Factories, Devicotta in the South, and Ingeram, Bandermalanka and Vizagapatam in the North. All these factories, save Devicotta, felt the full pressure of the French activities. But at Devicotta if there was no disturbance in the country, there was such a confusion in the Company's accounts that a new Resident, John Pybus, had to be sent there to model them on those of the other Subordinate Factories[2]. It is interesting to note that he was instructed to encourage the investment "by cultivating a good understanding with the King of Tanjour's Subjects and treating the Inhabitants with Justice and Humanity[3]." At Madras the enemy carried their ravages into St. Thomas Mount and Poonamallee and occasioned the withdrawal of the cloth from the washers and the submission of the petition of the renters of Poonamalle for remission on account of the damages sustained[4]. The Government there, however, did little to enquire into the damages. About the same time Madras was reinforced by a detachment from Bengal under Captains Robert Saunderson and James Chase, which had been requisitioned by the Presidency in November last[5]. It was this force under Captain Chase that joined Captain Clive at Warrapaucum and helped to disperse the enemy from Chingleput[6]. Of other matters relating to Madras the most important concerned the policy towards the Armenians and the Portuguese. On the rendition of Madras, Boscawen and Lawrence had charged them with treason for having assisted La Bourdonnais during his siege and recommended the confiscation of all their properties and their banishment from the White Town[7]. These measures had been partially effected. The despatch by the Durrington ordered their strict enforcement and the confiscation of the Portuguese Church[8]. The Presidency therefore had no choice but to urge their adoption. But when the Armenians, a wealthy community of merchants, represented the great risk they ran of being pillaged in the Black Town by the enemy, and the difficulty of procuring proper houses for their mercantile business, and prayed to be allowed to continue in the White Town till the fortifications of the Black Town were completed, Saunders and his Council relaxed the orders of the Home authorities and gave them some concessions. They were allowed a reasonable time within which to accommodate themselves in the Black Town and till the "Affairs are in a more settled state" suffered to continue their effects in the White Town. But the Portuguese Church was ordered to be pulled down[9]. We shall see more about these topics when the Presidency moved to Madras.

The situation at the Northern Settlements was more menacing. Letters frequently poured in from there depicting the utter chaos into which the country was plunged by Bussy's activities, by Salabat Jang's accession to the Soubha, by the Maratha incursions under Balaji Rao, and by the quarrels between the Nawab of Rajahmundry and Raja Vizairam Razu[10]. All this was unfavourable to the Company's investment which chiefly consisted of calicoes, long cloth and salempores[11]. The Resident of Ingeram, Foss Westcott, proposed building a godown at Yalakatippa for storing his bales and urged the advantages of obtaining by a firman from the complaisant Raja, the towns situated between Coringa and Ingeram rivers. He was encouraged to acquire the firman for the towns not indeed with a view to obtain immediate advantages—for this was out of the question when the country was in the throes of disturbances—but with a view to keep the French out of them and so to prevent them from putting the Company's trade under restrictions[1]. The Resident of Bandermalanka, John Andrews, reported the arrival of the Nawab of Rajahmundry at Ellore, the preparations he had made for the security of the Company's cloth and of the factory at Moddapolam. He had left in that factory a European lest the French should stir up the country and occupy it[2]. The French were actually fortifying the mouth of the Narsapore river[3], while Bulwal Khan possessing a grant from Salabat Jang for Bandermalanka was applying to the Nawab of Rajahmundry for assistance. Andrews had been informed by the Rajah that the English having had a grant from him for that factory should defend it themselves[4]. There was the fear of the Nawab's attacking not only Bandermalanka but Ingeram and Vizagapatam. All the three factories continually asked for assistance[5]. But Saunders and his Council resolved not to divide their forces but to concentrate them in the south to "act vigorously against the Enemy". Their prime concerns were the affairs at Trichinopoly and so they wisely deferred sending a force to the north "till a more favourable opportunity" directing, however, the Northern Factories to act with utmost caution in respect of their advances and the security of the Company's effects[6].

At Fort St. David itself besides the measures taken for the transfer of the Presidency to Madras, several matters awaited the Board's attention. The first and most important of these related to finance. It was the period of great expenditure brought on by the continual warfare, of the scarcity of gold and the depreciation of silver engendered by various causes which had already been examined by the Board in 1750[7]. The expenses of the army in the Carnatic, though promised to be discharged by the Nawab, had, actually, in the first instance, to be provided by the Presidency. The subordinate settlements also had to be frequently supplied with money to carry on the investment or to meet special difficulties presented by the country troubles and the Anglo-French rivalry. A welcome supply of gold arrived from Canton by a China ship, early in January. It was ordered to be coined with all expedition[8]. But the supply was insufficient. The result was that rupees had to be sold[9] and pagodas, which were the current coin with which all payments were made, had to be purchased at $8\frac{7}{8}$ and 9 per cent batta[10]. Nor was this the only embarrassment. Gunpowder which was then in great demand could not be readily procured. It was partly supplied by Bengal and Bombay and by the ships from Home. But large quantities of it had to be made in Fort St. David itself. Brohier the Engineer requested that 5,000 barrels should always be in store for the use of the Presidency and its Subordinate Factories[11]. It was, however, soon found that what was made at St. David's under the supervision of the Military Storekeeper was much inferior to what came from Europe. Brohier represented that it was necessary to have at least 400 barrels annually from England and these could be easily procured if the Company sent about 50 or 60 barrels on each out-going ship. The matter was therefore urged on the Home authorities[12] and in the meanwhile Brohier was directed to superintend the making of gunpowder[13].

Various other measures were passed at St. David's. The arrack farm, which had been for some time abolished without success to prevent drunkenness in the Military, was rented under certain restrictions[14]. Broad cloth was sold at outcry, save the green which had no demand[15]. The Success was freighted for the West Coast (Fort Marlborough)[16]. Reasons in writing were required from every Company's servant who had failed to get his books and accounts ready for the homeward bound ships [1]. The order passed in 1749 [2] for the demolition of the houses near the Dutch factory at Tevanapatam as a military measure, was reiterated [3]. Grain, which the renters had failed to supply, was directed to be purchased in the market to avoid scarcity [4]. And Madras was ordered to sell their lead at outcry to furnish them with cash [5]; and frequently reminded to collect the remainder of the Tripoty money from the Nawab's agents [6], which the Nawab had already assigned to the Company in 1751 [7].

The first thing that was done on the transfer of the seat of the Presidency to Madras was to proclaim the orders of the Directors appointing Saunders and his new Council before all the Company's servants and inhabitants [8]. And as the French had left but little furniture at the Fort and what had been procured since the rendition of Madras was insufficient to accommodate the Governor and the Officers living in the Fort, a " handsome set " was ordered for Saunders and suitable sets for other officers [9]. Three pressing matters were also taken up; the security of the Black Town, the erection of the new Mint, and the arrangement for the manufacture of gunpowder at Fort St. David. Brohier was asked to survey the Black Town [10]. Starke and Smith, two members of the Council, were directed to look for a proper place for the Mint [11]. The Company's ships were shortly expected from Home: and to coin the bullion they usually brought, a Mint at the Presidency was an urgent requisite. The Councillors gave it as their opinion that the place " where the Mint formerly stood " was the fittest for erecting a new one, and if two godowns belonging to Petrus, a rich Armenian merchant, could be purchased, a commodious Mint could be built. Their suggestions were approved and ordered to be carried out [12]. In regard to the gunpowder, as Brohier had come down to Madras its manufacture at Fort St. David was put under the direction of the Military Storekeeper with a proviso that it should be surveyed and approved by the Commanding Officer [13].

The making of this article, as has been seen, was an all important consideration. The gunpowder supplied from Bengal towards the close of April was found to be damaged and greatly below proof [14]. Bombay was, it is true, requisitioned for a large quantity of it, but neither Bombay, nor Bengal, nor England could be depended upon to meet emergencies. Brohier proposed in May to build a Powder Mill in Madras itself. He asserted that the powder made at St. David, Bombay and Bengal had proved " extremely bad upon all occasions " owing to the unskilfulness of workers and unsuitability of Mills and that if a new Mill were built on the Island where the former stood, he could make " Powder as good as any in Europe ". He also urged the need of repairing the Triplicane bridge, which had broken down. The bridge was ordered to be reconstructed at once, but the erection of the Powder Mill was postponed for future consideration, probably because the Board had no reason to hope for success in Madras when every attempt they had made had practically failed in Fort St. David [15]. They depended still to a considerable extent on supplies from Home [16] and Bombay [17] and Bengal [18], and in November observing from a report of John Call, who had succeeded Brohier as Engineer at Fort St. David, that the powder made there was still below proof and inferior to that made by the French at Pondicherry, they urged the Deputy Governor and Council to pay special attention to its manufacture [19].

Saunders and his Council were equally solicitous about revenue and financial matters which persistently pressed for action. It was expected in April that the true value of the Madras farms which had expired could be best ascertained after a brief interval sufficient to attract merchants and chief inhabitants[1]. In May Saunders hoped to secure the same rents for the farms as were obtained before the French occupation, except for the Betel and Tobacco farm which was known to be always a hardship on the farmers[2]. In June, such of the farms as had expired were let for five years beginning from the 1st of March: Betel and Tobacco and Arrack farms, the Measuring Duty and the Town Brokerage to one set of partners, Pitloor Venkati Krishna and Perumal Kellava Chittee at the rents mentioned on pages 97, 246 and 247. The Poonamallee was farmed to Namboor Subbiah, Linga Chittee, Subramania Moodaliar and Servanah Chittee, the former renters, on the same terms as those of last year (see pages 121 and 246). Other farms which had already been let are shown on pages 246 and 247. Most of the renters of these farms paid their kists more or less regularly according to the terms of their contract[3], but great difficulty was experienced in the case of the Poonamallee renters on the remissions they claimed on account of the damages sustained at the hands of the enemy[4]. It was decided in April to take up this enquiry on the arrival of Boddam, Powney and Wynch, who were still at Fort St. David[5]. Towards the close of May, a Committee consisting of Starke, Wynch and Smith was appointed[6]. After two months they reported that they had not been able to ascertain the losses. The Board therefore deemed it prudent to postpone the consideration of this affair till more definite information was forthcoming[7]. At last, in October, the members of the Board having made further enquiries agreed to grant a remission of 12,000 pagodas unless the farmers declared upon oath that they had sustained a greater loss, in which case, "We are of opinion they should be allowed what Damage they will swear[8]". Farms were not the only source of income. The Mint Customs, the Sea and Land Customs, and the Quit rent (see page 247) yielded a good revenue. No great difficulties were experienced in their allocation or collection. But in April some disputes having arisen between the Importers and Exporters of Cotton as to who should pay the Import duties on cotton imported at Madras for exportation, all such duties were ordered to be paid by the Importers[9]. In May it was found that goods were smuggled into St. Thome to the great prejudice of the Sea and Land Customs of Madras. To put down this traffic no customs were directed to be collected in St. Thome and all vessels importing there were prohibited, save such as were charged with provisions for "private families". For these vessels alone the Sea Customer was authorized to issue licences[10].

The chief sources of supply were beyond doubt the Company's ships from Home which came laden with treasure, wares and stores. The names and the times of arrival and departure of these ships and the cargoes they brought are indicated in the table on pages xiii to xxvii. It is worth noting here that as the year advanced the expenditure consequent on the wars and the investment both at the Presidency and at the Subordinate Factories became so pressing that treasure consigned to Bengal had to be detained and diverted for the use of Madras[11]. The Anglo-French struggles were a severe drain on the treasury: equally severe were the difficulties presented by the depreciation of silver and the scarcity of gold. In this predicament Saunders and his Council had to try every conceivable expedient to prevent a financial break-down.

It was natural that they should exercise a strict supervision to eliminate waste and correct irregularities. Various attempts were made to control the army expenses. Bills irregularly drawn by the Officers in the field without specifying the different items on which the money was spent were ordered not to be discharged: satisfactory reasons were required for every item of expenditure[12]. The Deputy Governor and Council were reprimanded for their delay in transmitting accounts of military stores and Paymaster's accounts. They were forbidden to buy any wares or stores without the previous sanction of the Presidency. Their garrison was fixed at 500 men, including the Officers, Military and train[1]. Palk was appointed Paymaster and Commissary of the Army in the Field to control the Military disbursements[2]. To avoid disputes in the collection of Tripoty money for 1753—disputes which had continually harassed Madras as well as Fort St. David in regard to the collection of 1752[3]—it was agreed to demand a fixed sum from the Nawab, leaving to his agents whatever sums they could collect on that account[4]. And finally to prevent confusion in the Nawab's accounts relating to the sepoys to be charged him 1300 were all that were considered necessary to be retained in the Company's pay; 600 at Madras, 600 at Fort St. David and 100 at Devicotta. All the rest of the sepoys retained in the Company's pay "since the Troubles in the Country" were ordered to be carried to the Nawab's accounts[5].

While these measures relieved the Company of some charges they hardly checked the increasing growth of expenditure. It was reckoned in July that 8,08,000 Pagodas were required to carry on the investment and to defray the expenses of the Presidency and its Subordinate Factories[6]. The Northern Settlements and Fort St. David in particular had to be constantly supplied with money. To the north the supplies were made by the Company's Bay vessels as usual[7]. But to St. David it was wisely considered unsafe to follow that procedure in view of the French danger at sea. Nor could the supplies be made by land in a country distracted by warfare. In July, the rents of Devicotta and Trevendapuram were assigned for their use[8]. And from the same month cash remittances being risky, remittances were made them by bills on merchants[9] and on Company's servants. Fort St. David likewise drew frequently large bills on Madras[10]. In the meantime to meet the current expenses and to supply the Northern Factories pagodas had to be frequently bought by the sale of rupees. In June Linga Chittee, one of the principal merchants and farmers of revenue, having offered to furnish them at 10 per cent batta was advanced 40,000 rupees. The exchange rate then was 379 rupees for 100 Pagodas[11]. A further advance of rupees was made him in August to purchase 34,783 pagodas[12]. Large sums of rupees were sold again every month from July to December[13].

Meanwhile, the shipping season commenced and kept the Board busy with commercial and other allied affairs. The Rhoda came from Home towards the close of May with a list of the investment for the ensuing year[14]. The Prince of Wales followed her[15]. Five ships arrived in June, the Drake, the Edgecote, the Protector, the Godolphin and the Colchester[16]. Two ships, the Admiral Vernon and the Oxford arrived in July[17]: and two more, the Bombay Castle and the Chesterfield in August[18]. The Delawar came in September[19]. All these, except the last named, carried treasure and wares and stores[20], while some among them brought also troops, an essential factor in the Anglo-French struggles[21]. The Delawar brought slaves or Coffrees from Madagascar[22]. The landing and verification of treasure, the sale of Europe goods, the provision of the investment as per instructions from Home, the housing and distribution of troops and Coffrees, necessarily occupied much of the time of Saunders and his Council.

The verification and custody of treasure, however, was not in the charge of the whole Council but of a smaller Committee of it, the Committee of Treasury established about the middle of May on the orders of the Directors. It consisted of Saunders, Starke and Powney, and was in charge of the Treasury kept in the silver godown and provided with three different locks the key of each of which was in possession of one of the members[1]. It was, however, not this Committee, but the full Board who decided general questions involving expenditure. What was done in this matter has already been explained. We may note here the action taken in regard to the Directors' complaints about the importation of silver and coral from Home. These commodities were imported on the Company's ships on the understanding that equivalent returns for them would be made in diamonds and other precious stones by the consignees. The consigners had entered into bonds with the Directors that these returns should be made within a fixed time. The time limit had expired, but the consignees had kept quiet. An enquiry was therefore ordered in May and in September, a report having been submitted embodying the reasons assigned by the consignees, this report was sent Home for the Directors' information[2].

The goods imported from Europe chiefly consisted of broad cloth, lead, copper, iron and Madeira wine. Whatever remained of these in excess of what was required for the use of the Presidency and its Subordinate Factories was sold at public auction after the due notice of the sale was given to the inhabitants. This method while it generally provided ready cash, obviated the venalities incident on monopolies. In 1750 itself soon after Saunders had assumed charge as Governor it had been decided to break Linga Chittee's monopoly of broad cloth[3]. In 1751 it had been sold at public auction[4]. The same procedure was followed in 1752: broad cloth was put up for sale in February and in October and sold to the highest bidders[5]. In December as Linga Chittee was still in large arrears, evidently on account of broad cloth sold him on previous occasions, it was agreed to recover his debts by a proportionate reduction in the advance asked by him and his partner Servanah Chittee, on account of the investment[6]. Lead and wine were put up for sale in October[7]; Iron in July[8], but copper was not offered for sale as there was great demand for copper coins at the Northern Settlements[9]. Europe velvets put up for sale in October along with lead, found no purchasers.[10].

If the sale of Europe goods was a minor affair, the provision of the investment was a major concern of the Council. In May and June, the Company's merchants were as usual advanced with money to set the weavers to work[11]. In June, the Board having considered the Directors' instructions on the investment for the ensuing year came to the conclusion that it was no use insisting on an abatement on the prices beforehand since what the merchants thus lost, they always made up by bringing in bad cloth. It was this that was held really responsible in previous years for the inferior manufacture about which the Directors had so bitterly complained. The best method seemed to be to allow the merchants for the ensuing year the same terms as those of the last year " which in the present Situation of the Country ... ... cannot be esteemd unreasonable ", but, if the cloth proved inferior on sorting, to insist on an abatement. This procedure could be followed both in the case of the ordinary and superfine goods. That the merchants might not complain, they were informed that the procedure would be adopted for the current as well as the ensuing investment and Linga Chittee and Servanah Chittee who provided fine goods of inferior quality last season were particularly warned[12].

This candid and reasonable policy, however, bore no better fruit for the current investment. In July the Export Warehousekeeper reported the same tale of inferior fine goods brought in by Linga Chittee and his partner [1]. The Board after examining the cloth made a proportionate abatement and decided to entertain new sets of merchants should the Company's merchants raise objection [2]. In December several merchants who had contracted for the ordinary sortments, Tellasingha Chittee and Cundapah Chittee, Sunca Venkataramah and Ambalatody, and Gundaveddy Venkataramah and Nella Chittee were advanced, as also the Painter Tonapah and his partners [3]. In this way, while the Madras investment was carefully supervised, that of the Northern Factories was vigilantly safeguarded. The Armenians and others having bought there a large quantity of long cloth ordinary and salampores were commanded in April to sell their cloth at once to the Company's merchants on penalty of confiscation of all such goods as were found in their possession[4]. This order was communicated to Vizagapatam with instructions to prohibit private vessels "from taking Goods of the Company's Manufacture" and to punish them if they disobeyed[5].

But it was not till towards the close of the year that the affairs of the Northern Settlements were improved and the dangers threatening them averted. In the beginning, their position was indeed weak and unstable. Westcott reported that he had been obliged to abandon Yalakatippa and to secure himself at Ingeram owing to the complaints of the merchants about the difficulty and expense of bringing in cloth at Yalakatippa and of his servants because of its unhealthiness. Cloth at Ingeram had to be cured under the protection of guns[6]. Vizagapatam did what it could to strengthen its defences[7]. Bandermalanka requested permission for doing the same[8]. All the three urged for a reinforcement[9]. It would make the Nawab of Rajahmundry a friend, instead of a formidable enemy[10]: it would prevent him from joining the French[11]: it would strengthen the confidence of Vizairam Razu[12]: it would greatly encourage the Company's investment[13]. These hopes, however, did not in the least shake the resolve of Saunders and his Council who had already decided not to divide their forces so as to concentrate them solely in the south[14]. To add to the troubles a violent gale did great damage at Vizagapatam[15]: Knapton, the Engineer, was therefore ordered to go thither and to report on the fortifications[16]. About the same time, the scarcity of copper money, dodoos, or cash, severely handicapped the Northern Factories in their investment[17], as the weavers bought thread chiefly by that coin [18]. But these clouds, however, gradually dispersed: the needs of the weavers were satisfied by supplies of copper coins from Madras[19]; the damages done by the storm were repaired[20], and the tension of the political situation was relieved by the murder of Ramdas Puntaloo, a French protege of Salabat Jang[21], and the recall of the Nawab to Golcondah[22]. Vizairam Razu paid a visit to the Chief of Vizagapatam and offered a grant of the Pondemarka country to the Company. Great advantages were expected from this grant as the country "is productive of much Grain and some Cloth, is Contiguous to our Limits and the Investment to the Southward of Vizagapatam passes through that Country[23]." The Rajah further granted Nellapallee, Malloram, Pottacorra and Pattavala[24].

Of the troops that came from England the Swiss under Captains Schaub and Chabbert gave good deal of trouble and vexation. Soon after arrival, in June, they asked for certain military privileges asserting that they were allowed their nation in all the European armies, and that they had been assured of the same by Sir Luke Schaub, who negotiated their services with the Company. To hold councils of war independent of any authority ; to adjudge and punish all crimes involving " sentences of life and death " ; to use their own discipline and inflict their own punishments short of death sentence at the " will and pleasure " of the commander of the troops ; to maintain their own uniform and military music ; to enjoy exemption from duties on wine, provisions &c :— these were very extensive privileges which Saunders and his Council could not grant without any directions from Home. They therefore put the Swiss on the same footing with the English until further orders from the Directors and required Chabbert and Schaub to conform to the established military regulations. At the same time since several of the Swiss were deserting and many among them were Roman Catholics and not to be depended upon, they resolved to separate the two companies [1]. The Swiss lost no time in protesting against the non-compliance of their demands, but they could not refuse to be separated [2]. In August Chabbert having resigned for reasons of ill-health, was succeeded by Gaupp [3] ; and Schaub and his company were ordered to Fort St. David on Chelingas. Here, however, fate intervened. No sooner had they sighted the Pondicherry road than they were captured by a French ship under Dupleix's orders and taken prisoners to Pondicherry [4]. This was a considerable loss to the Company at a time when they were in need of every soldier ; when Lawrence was about to take the field at Bahur [5]. The seizure of the Company's troops on the high seas when the two nations were officially at peace and fighting merely as auxiliaries was viewed as a violation of International Law by Saunders and his Council [6]. Several letters and protests swiftly followed to Pondicherry [7]. But in vain. Dupleix remained obdurate and by this one act more than perhaps anything else he confirmed the suspicions of the English Governor that no faith could be placed in the French so long as they were ruled by an autocrat and that safety existed in nothing but a vigorous prosecution of the war [8].

The arrival of the Swiss and other reinforcements from England necessitated the conversion of the Hospital fronting the parade into barracks and the shifting of the hospital to some of the houses in Peddnayague Pettah approved by the Major and by the surgeons [9]. To help the surgeons, Drs. Andrew Munro and Robert Turing, Archibald Swinton was entertained as an assistant [10]. It was, however, not the regular troops but the Coffrees who engaged much of the Board's attention. The Delawar being shortly expected directions were issued in July to look for a proper place to accommodate them [11]. The ship with a cargo of slaves, including women, actually arrived on the 1st September [12], when, having found the shed intended for their quarters on the west side of the town between the wall and the second ditch still unfinished, they were ordered to be lodged " for the present in the Artillery Park [13] ".

Nothing is more characteristic of Saunders and his Council than the humanity with which they treated these African slaves. They were directed to be properly lodged and clothed. A trustworthy sergeant was put over them " to prevent any Communication between the Soldiery and Women, with strict orders to acquaint the Commanding Officer of any irregularity " so that the offenders might be immediately punished. They were required to be dieted daily according to a menu, first by the Military Paymaster, then in December by James Calvineer, a contractor, upon trial for one month, at the rate of a pagoda and three quarters a week for each man. In accordance with this contract they were to be served with two meals daily " to consist of 1½ Pounds of Meat, or Fish in proportion for Variety when procurable, and one Measure of Rice to be delivered them curried". In case of sickness the surgeons were asked to "take the same care of them in every respect as the Company's Military[1]." All this was not done in vain, the Coffrees were providing good fighting material ever since 1750 when they were first entertained in the Military[2]. The Board decided to employ the men in the Military so long as the troubles continued in the country and to send the women to the West Coast (i.e., to Sumatra) to work in the plantations[3]. A singular instance of attachment among them and kindness on the part of the Government deserves special mention. In pursuance of the policy envisaged, Fort St. David was asked to send all Coffree women to be despatched to the West Coast. There were only twenty at that place, of whom seven being married, their Coffree husbands in the Military "absolutely refused to serve if they were deprived of their wives". This deterred the Fort St. David Council from sending them and the Presidency fully approved their action[4].

The demand for Coffrees was, in fact, great. The Captains and the Supercargoes who bought them on account of the Company were paid a commission for their trouble, while the surgeons who looked after them during the voyage were given a gratuity[5]. The Delawar having brought only 216 out of the 600 commissioned by the Directors her Captain and Supercargo were demanded of the reasons for their small purchase[6]. They attributed it to the French and Dutch competition, which had almost depopulated Madagascar and to the short time within which they had to effect their purchase[7]. But the Delawar was sent again via the West Coast to Madagascar for another cargo of Coffrees. Should Madagascar prove disappointing they were to proceed to any of the neighbouring Islands Mosambique or other places, provided they returned by August 1753[8].

This regular hunt for Coffrees was not without its demerits and dangers. A guard of soldiers with a Coffree interpreter had to be sent by the Delawar to facilitate her business. For the factory at Madagascar was frequently assailed by the natives whenever ships moved in sight for their purchase. Nor did they become docile when bought and boarded on the ships. They struggled, fought, used violence to get back to their native land, and could be reduced only with difficulty[9]. Herein, indeed, we can visualise the pathetic picture of slavery with all its ugliness and brutality. But once they were landed on the Coromandel Coast they ceased to give any trouble. Time and distance might be considered to have softened their feelings and dulled their memory but the main reason is undoubtedly to be sought in the fair treatment they received at the hands of the Government. Those who ascribe this treatment to their utility must remember that where they were useful in Europe or America they were in that age generally maltreated. It is this fact that redounds greatly to the credit of Saunders and his Council for their benevolent and equitable policy towards Coffrees.

Though Saunders and his Council rise far above many of their contemporaries in the west in the treatment towards slaves, they did not transcend them in the policy towards the Roman Catholics. As has been seen the Catholics were charged with treason; they were suspect, the Armenians had been required to quit the White Town, the Portuguese Church had been ordered to be demolished. It is true that the Board relaxed somewhat the Directors' orders and allowed the Armenians sufficient time to seek suitable habitations in the Black Town. But they insisted on the pulling down of the Portuguese Church[10] though with all decency they permitted the dead bodies to be removed by the friends or relatives of the deceased before the work of demolition was begun[11]. Then with characteristic caution they directed Brohier to survey the plot chosen by the Armenians in the Black Town to ensure that it did not interfere with the intended fortifications. He was also asked to submit a report on the condition of the Armenian and Portuguese churches in the Black Town (April)[1]. The report is not available ; but we learn that in October the Protestant missionaries having requested for payment of a gratuity granted them by the Directors and for permission to raise a lottery fund with which to build a church and an orphan school, the Board thought of handing over to them the church at Vepery and its adjoining buildings[2]. In November when the missionaries themselves prayed to be put in possession of the church and pressed for the gratuity, representing that their House of worship and teaching had been very much damaged by the great storm of the year, their requests were ordered to be complied with at once[3]. The church belonged to the deceased Coja Petrus Uscan—a rich Armenian merchant. He had built it intending to use it as his monument. He had bequeathed it to Capuchin missionaries and endowed it with a perpetual fund for its maintenance. His body had been interred in it in accordance with his last wish. In a petition for redress the Executors of his will brought these facts to the notice of Saunders and his Council[4]. But they had no effect. The Directors had ordered the delivery of the church to the Protestant missionaries and the Board refused to set aside these orders[5]. In the circumstances the Executors could only protest and request to refer the whole case once more to the consideration of the Home authorities[6].

This taint of partiality natural to the age is absent in the decisions arrived at in regard to the quarrels between the Right and Left hand castes. Early in May the petitions of the two castes setting forth their respective rights and privileges and accusing each other of violating them were considered by Saunders and his Council in a spirit of absolute impartiality. Finding that in 1728 the two castes had entered into an agreement defining their privileges and sworn to abide by it[7], it was ordered to give notice by Tom Tom that this agreement would be enforced on pain of severe punishment. Each caste was to have perfect liberty to perform its ceremonies at its festivals, weddings and burials, as was usual since 1728, but neither was to have any claim to the "ground at present the Glacis and the Esplanade". This tract lying to the North west of the White Town was to be common for "whatever caste or nation[8]".

A few minor points of interest remain to be noted. Soon after Madras became the Presidency, the privileges of the Master Carpenter, John Moore, granted him in 1750[9], were curtailed on orders from Home. He was put under Brohier[10] but he resigned[11]. Brohier's pay was increased on account of his growing duties[12]. Saunders succeeded in August in making an agreement with the Danes of Tranquebar for the exchange of deserters[13] and in obtaining a firman from the Nawab for the remission of the Madras rent which amounted to 1,200 pagodas annually[14]. From the beginning of 1752, under Act 24, Geo. II, C. 23, dates had been recorded according to the calendar year in place of the civil year[15]. In virtue of the same Act, in September, the old style was replaced by the new, Thursday, the 3rd September being changed into Thursday the 14th September[16]. On the night of the 31st October a violent gale demolished the washers' huts, damaged the buildings and warehouses, destroyed a great many boats, dispersed and dismantled some Company's ships[17], wrecked the Colchester[18], and sent the Delawar mastless and reeling to Galle[19]. It was as if Nature had frowned on the turmoil created by man.

November advises that the Quantity of Madeira Wine received by the Duke of Dorset and Wager, was only seventy Pipes, that they had stationed the Wager for Bombay and hoped to dispatch the rest of the ships Home this Season. That the Batta on the Arcot Rupees was considerably lower'd at the Mint of Muxadavad, which occasioned their Merchants to complain at being obliged to receive them; Therefore they desire that the Supplies design'd them in future, may be sent, One quarter in Bullion, One quarter in Arcot Rupees, and the rest in Madrass Rupees; and that We will give Directions for a star or mark to be struck on the Arcot Rupees, in order to distinguish them from those of * Petan, which are imported there under the Denomination of Arcot. General Letters from Ingeram.

No. 13. From the Resident at Ingeram dated the 6th. Instant, advising the Condition of the Investment there, and that he purposed with our permission building a Brick Godown at Yellacoltippah for the more conveniently lodging his Bales, That the Rajah had given him an Order to hoist our Colours in the Towns situated between Corringa & Ingeram Rivers, and at the same time declared that they with their Districts belong'd to the English; He further represents the advantages that may accrue to the Company from securing them, as well as the other side of Coringa River, including in all five Towns or Villages, which He desires Permission to endeavour to obtain a [1] Phirmaund for the usual Rents; acquainting at the same time that the French were applying for them and should they succeed in their Negotiation, it would render the Settlement of no Value to the Company; He encloses the Books ending Aprill 1751 & Accounts current Fort St. George from 1743 to 1747.

Mr. Charles Hopkins.

No. 14. From Mr. Charles Hopkins dated the 6th. Instant enclosing an Account of his Disbursements on the Expedition to [2] Divy Island the Ballance of which he desires may be paid with the addition of such an Allowance as We may judge proper to appoint him, that not being determined when he left this Place.

Fort St. George.

No. 15 & 16. Both from Fort St. George the first dated the 13th. Acquaints Us that the Renters of the Farms had promised to pay their Ballances without Delay; that they had complied with our Directions under the 9th. January concerning the Tripoty Money, enclosing Account Expences of St. Thome Redoubt, with its Dimentions, The accounts current of Mahomud Ally Cawn; List of Broad Cloth for the Use of Fort St. George, and an Indent for Stationary. The other dated the 17th. Advises their having taken two hundred Barrels of Gun powder out of the Boneta Sloop who arrived there the Day before from Bengal as also that the Rheta was imported there with Bales from Vizagapatam.

— FORT ST. DAVID, JANUARY 1751–52. —

Bengal. N°. 17 From the President and Council of Fort William dated the 1st. Instant, enclosing Invoice & Bill of Lading for six hundred and ninteen Barrells of Gunpowder consign'd us on the Boneta, whom they desire We will return as soon as possible with a Lading of redwood, That they should forward the Remains of the Powder with the packing stuff and West Coast Goods we have indented for by the first Opportunity.

Vizagapatam. N°. 18 From Vizagapatam dated the fourth advising their having dispatch'd the Success to Us the Day before with Bales &ca. Duplicate Invoices and Bills of Lading for which they enclose.

& Fort St. George. N°. 19 From Fort St. George dated the 17th. is Chiefly in reply to ours of the 13th. wherein We press'd the speedy forwarding their Books besides which they acquaint Us that in Complyance with our Directions they had frequently call'd upon the Painters & Servanah Chittee to bring in the Fine Goods, who had as constantly put them off, but that now they were embaling, and if possible should be sent Us by the next Sea Conveyance.

Mr. Westcott's Proposal for applying for a Phirmaund for some villages about Ingeram accepted of. The Proposal in Mr. Westcott's Letter of procuring a Phirmaund for the Places he mentions near Ingeram being considered of by the Board, they are of Opinion it ought to be embraced; for tho' the Company may reap no immediate advantage from it (which by Mr. Westcott's representation is supposing the worst) yet the keeping the French out of them is a motive of sufficient Weight to enduce Us to accept it, for should they possess themselves of the Villages about the Factory, Our Business will be subject to many Inconveniences and liable to any Impositions and Restrictions they may think proper to lay on it, for which Reasons it is AGREED that Mr. Westcott be authoriz'd to pursue his Negotiation on that Head.

The altering the situation of the Factory & erecting a Godown thought unnecessary. But as to the altering the Situation of the Factory and the building the Godown he proposes at Yellacoltippa We are of opinion it is puting the Company to an unnecessary Expence, as We may hope by a favourable turn of affairs to recover the Possession of Our old Factory.

Vizaram Rauze's Request for Powder & Lead complyed with. & A Present order'd him. The President acquaints the Board that He has received a Letter from Viza Ram Rauze, Rajah of the country about Madapollam requesting to be supplied with some Powder and Lead to the amount of a thousand Rupees, which is agreed to comply with, as also that a small Present be sent him, in return for the good Will he has shew'd Us in the late Transactions to the Northward.

Redwood to be provided for Bengal. ORDERED that the Redwood requested by the Gentlemen at the Bay be got ready to forward them by the Boneta. But it is AGREED to detain that Vessell till We see whether the Speedwell Ketch brings up all the Ingeram Bales, in failure of which we propose sending the Boneta to fetch the Remainder; the precarious Situation of Affairs there rendering it unsafe to continue them.

Order concerning the Boneta Sloop.

Packing stuff, Gunpowder, and the Detachment expected from Bengal order'd to be landed at Madrass. It is AGREED that the Packing Stuff and the Remainder of the Gunpowder which the Gentlemen at Bengal acquaint Us will be sent by the first Opportunity be landed at Madrass; as likewise the Detachment which by our private Advices we learn are coming.

Indents for Packing Stuff, and copies of Letters to the Mogull to be forwarded to Bengal. ORDERED that Our Indents of packing stuff for the ensuing year be drawn out to forward to Bengall by the Bonetta, and as the Gentlemen there have omitted to acknowledge the Receipt of our Letter by the Wager of the 22d. August, accompanying two to the Mogull, it is AGREED to send Copies.

— FORT ST. DAVID, JANUARY 1751-2 —

Herriot for the Use of his Sloop which attended Mr. Hopkins on this Service.

A Gratuity made Mr. Vogle for his Map.

ORDERED that a General Letter to the Honble Court of Directors be drawn out, to be forwarded by the Don Carlos to Bussorah.

General Letter to England via Bussorah.

Teneveroy Pillah & Cootah proffering to rent the arrack Farm at 2000 Pagodas ℔ Annum, it's AGREED to accept the Offer, as we don't find that the abolishing of it has answered the end proposed of keeping the military from drinking; a * cowle is therefore ORDERED to be drawn out for them after the usual manner, with an additional Article limiting the publick Houses to be licenced for retailing Arrack to a certain number, under particular Restrictions.

A cowle for the Arrack Farm to be drawn out.

four of chints ℔ the sloop Fortune, The latter dated the 11th. Instant advising the arrival of the ship Fort St. David there that Day with a Detachment of Military and some People of the Artillery consisting of one hundred and forty three Persons including Officers from Bengall, Who were all safely landed and inclosing the Rolls received with them.

No. 35 From the President and Council of Fort William dated the 12th. Ultimo advising that having received our Letter of the 7th. November representing the advantage a supply of Military and Arms would be of to our Honble Master's Affairs on the Coast They had by the Fort St. David and his Majesties Sloop the Swallow sent us two hundred Military under the Command of Captain Robert Saunderson and James Chase who had their Directions for observing our Orders for their further Proceedings, and had left it to us to settle the Passage Money for those by the Fort St. David with her Owners here, requesting that not only the present Detachment but the Recruits design'd them last Season may be sent them as Soon as the Situation of Affairs will admit of it, and further acquainting Us that having not above two hundred Muskets in Garrison besides those suplied the Party with they were unable to furnish us with any, That by the Fort St. David they have complied with the Indent for Fort Marlborough and as much of ours for Packing Stuff as She could take on Board and have likewise laden on her eleven hundred twenty five Peices of Jugdea * Baftaes for Chinting.

& Fort William.

The President produces to the Board a Letter to him from Mr. Brohier as entered hereafter representing that the Gunpowder made here being much inferiour in goodness to what comes from Europe. He conceives it will be necessary to have four hundred Barrells annually from thence and that it may be easily done by sending out fifty or sixty Barrells upon each ship bound hither. Which It's AGREED to mention to our Honble Masters in our next address by the Swallow Man of Warr.

Annual Supply of Gun powder from England represent'd as necessary.

A Letter from the Military Storekeeper read as entered hereafter setting forth His having purchased a large Stock of Brimstone for carrying on the Powder Business before it was thought proper to order it should be made on the Honble Company's Account and as it will now Remain on his Hands He requests It may be taken of him for the Honble Company's Use at the Rate He gave for it which was 12 Pagodas a Candy. He likewise represents a Robbery having been committed in one of the Godowns under his care wherein he had deposited about Eight hundred loose Copper Hoops receiv'd from his Majesty's Commissary among other Stores which being wanted lately on going to the said Godown for them, To his great surprize he found they were all gone, the Door being lock'd when He came to it but upon a narrower search He soon observed the way they had been carried off was through a Window that was broke open which as it must have been a Work of time and attended with many Difficulties He is at a Loss who to suspect or what Methods to take for discovering the Perpetrators, and having plac'd them in as much security as was in his Power He thinks this accident cannot be ascribed to any neglegence in him and that it would be a hardship should He be made accountable for the same therefore hopes for our favourable determination on the matter. To the first part of which regarding the Brimstone's being taken for the Company's use, The Board Agree and [sic] that He be paid for it the Price it cost him. But as to the Copper Hoops though We are persuaded no care of Mr. Pybus's was wanting for their Preservation yet We are of opinion Our Honble Masters may not approve of our permitting their amount to be wrote off without their being first advised of it. for which reason think it proper to refer the same to their decision, but that nevertheless all possible Endeavours be used for apprehending the Offenders.

Military Storekeeper's Letter concerning Brimstone

& A Robbery of Copper Hoops.

Order'd that He be paid for the Brimstone the Price it cost him.

But that the Robbery of the Copper Hoops be referr'd to the Company.

TO THE HONOURABLE THOMAS SAUNDERS ESQR.
PRESIDENT & GOVERNOUR OF FORT ST. DAVID &CA.

HONOURABLE SIR

As the Powder which has hitherto been made here is much inferior in goodness to what is made in Europe, I humbly conceive it will be necessary to have about 400 Barrels from thence, on the annual Ships which may be done by sending out 50 or 60 Barrels in each.

I am most respectfully,

HONOURABLE SIR

Your most humble and most obedient

FORT ST. DAVID.
FEBRUARY THE 15TH. 1751-2.

Servant,
J. BROHIER.

TO THE HONBLE THOMAS SAUNDERS ESQR.
PRESIDENT & GOVERNOUR &CA. COUNCIL OF
FORT ST. DAVID.

HONBLE SIR & SIRS

I have received a Letter from Mr. Secretary Bourchier signifying to me your Resolution that the Gunpowder in future is to be made by me on Account the Honble Company on as reasonable Terms as possible By which I understand the Materials are to be furnished by them, and I only to discharge the

—— FORT ST. DAVID, FEBRUARY 1751-52 ——

Disbursements on the making it. I therefore sent for the Head Man to agree with him for so much ℔ Candy and find him unwilling to engage for less than nine Pagodas, on which Terms He will contract to furnish it, the Company supplying Materials of all kinds; But as I had purchased a large stock of Brimstone for carrying on the Business, which will now remain on my Hands, I hope your Honour &c$^{a}$. will please to give orders that it be receiv'd on Account the Honble Company at the Rate I paid for it which was P$^{s}$. 12 ℔ [1] Candy.

It is with concern I find myself under a necessity of acquainting your Honour &$^{a}$. with a late unfortunate Circumstance and for which I cannot possibly account. The Particulars are as follows; Among the several Military Stores receiv'd from his Majesties Commissary, were a number of loose Copper Hoops about eight hundred, which not being immediately wanted for service, nor indeed any prospect of it for some time, I placed in a small Godown in the Fort, with some other Stores of the like kind, but having lately occasion to make use of some I went to the Godown where they were and found them all gone which surpriz'd me greatly as the Door was lock'd, but on examining more strictly I observed the Window was broke open which must have been the way they were carried off, as this must have been a Work of time and attended with many Difficulties, I am quite at a Loss who to suspect, or what Method to take to discover the Perpetrators. I have only therefore to represent to your Honour &c$^{a}$. the hardship it would be on me to be made accountable for this Loss, as it cannot be ascribed to any neglect of mine, having plac'd them in as much security as was in my Power; But relying on your favourable Determination I shall subscribe myself with all due Respect.

HONOURABLE SIR & SIRS
Your most Obed$^{t}$. & most humble Servant
JOHN PYBUS.

General Letter from Fort St. George Read.

General Letter N$^{o}$. 44 from the Deputy Govern$^{r}$. and Council of Fort S$^{t}$. George dated 29$^{th}$. Ultimo accompanying their Consultations and Monthly Papers for January, and inserting an account of Cloth on hand.

Cash Account for Febr$^{y}$. read.

The President reads the Cash Account for last Month, Ballance remaining now compar'd with the Chest, Thirty three thousand, two Hundred twenty one Current Pagodas, seventeen Fanams, and Forty one Cash (33221. 17. 41) and Thirty Thousand, and four Madrass Pagodas (30,004).

[A] Letter wrote Capt. Speke of his Majesty's Sloop Swallow to des[ire] his continuance [on] the Coast some time longer.

As the Affairs of the Country are now drawing towards a Crisis, and an Engagement with the Enemy at Tritchenopoly, which we may expect shortly, will make a great alteration in them, of which, it will be doubtless, not very acceptable only, but of great Consequence, to our Honble Masters to be early inform'd. Its therefore agreed to write to Capt. Speke on this Subject and to desire his Continuance some time longer on this Coast as we imagine from the lateness of the season, it will not be material Difference to him in regard to his Passage, and it may likewise be a means of preventing the Enemy from making any attempts on the Black Town of Madrass, which we are somewhat apprehensive of, when they are acquainted with the Number of Europeans, he has on board who can be landed in Case of an Emergency.

Lead remaining at Fort St. George orderd to be sold.

Lead bearing a good Price at Madrass AGREED to direct the Gentlemen there to sell Three Hundred Candys at Outcry for ready Money in order to furnish them with Cash, and to send us, Fifty Candys for the Use of the Garrison by the first Conveyance.

The President acquaints the Board that he had receiv'd a Letter from Major Kinneer, which he now delivers into the Board & is read (as enter'd hereafter) claiming a superiour Rank in Council to Mr. Starke which he grounds on the appointment of the Council in the General Letter from the Honble Court of Directors by their Ship Durrington, wherein he is nominated third & Mr. Starke Fourth of Council, submitting however the Determination of the Affair to the Board untill the Pleasure of our Honble Masters be known, having maturely weighed the Reasons that may be offered on both sides. And the President acquainting the Board that he had taken the sense of the Absent Members of the Council in this respect, which concurring entirely with our sentiments, We are unanimously of opinion that as Major Kinneer is particularly mention'd to rise no higher than Third, and as Mr. Starke is Second for the Time being, he is entitled to the superiour Rank.

To the Honble Thomas Saunders Esqr.

Presidt. & Govr. &ca. Council of Fort St. George.

Honble Sir & Sirs

Having conformable to an Order of Council taken a survey of the White Town in order to fix upon a proper place for erecting a Silver Mint, We are of Opinion that the same Spot of Ground on which the Mint before stood is the most Convenient Place at present in the White Town for building it, and will answer the purpose with taking in two Godowns belonging to the Estate of Petrus, or a part of the Horse Stable, as they are both Contiguous & very Commodious. We are

HONBLE SIR & SIRS
Your most Obedient Humble Servants

FORT ST. GEORGE
20TH. APRIL 1752.

RICHD. STARKE.
JOHN SMITH.

Sr.

The Honour done me by the Honble Directors of the East India Company appointing me their Major here, I shall allways greatfully acknowledge, and make it my studdy in every particular to keep up to & faithfully execute the Trust they have reposed in me.

The cause of my Writing this Letter is to express my surprize at my not being received according to my Rank in Council, as I find Mr. Starke expects the preeminence there. It is far from my Inclination to give Trouble but I think it a Duty incombent on me, to insist on what I think right in this particular, till otherways than by his Opinion found wrong.

When I enterd into the Honble Companys Service, I was assured that I was not only apointed Major, but also third of Council on the Coste of Cormidel, and am certain the Directors Intentions were such, whatever Opinion may be had of it heer, and as a Confirmation to what I have acerted, I beg recorse may be had to their General Letter ℔ Ship Durrington, I beleive in that Letter, you'l find the whole Council neam'd & appointed by Seniority, Vizt. Thomas Saunders Esqr. Governour & President, Wm. Cockell Esqr. Deputy Govr. & Second, Wm. Kinneer Esqr. Major of the Forces & Third, Richard Starke Esqr. Forth &c. &c. nameing the whole Council & giveing Precedency, if it be found so I resonably may conclude myself (in the absence of Mr. Cockell) next in seniority to you, unless Major Lawrence be present, in that Case, he claims the seat in Council on your Right Hand.

It is naturall for all Men to cleam what they think they have a right to, In that Case I beleive Mr. Starke persists, So do I, not thro Ostentati[ons] or beleif of Superiority of Judgement to Mr. Starke in Mercantile Affairs, but to the Rank & Trust reposed in me by the Honble Court of Directors, and in behalf of those who hereafter may succeed me.

I shall ever acknowledge Mr. Starkes Judgement Superior to mine in that way & Every Gentlemans neamd of the Council. But I beleive nay am certain, it was not for Judgement in Trade, that the Honble Directors first instituted their Major Third of Council, It was with Design to add to his Authority & make him the more respected.

If their Intentions were to be Construed According to Mr. Starkes Opinion, The Major is Lyable to be Subserviant to a Factor or even Writer, as it may so happen that the Good of the service may call him, to a Subordinate Factory, under the Care of a Factor, as at present there is such. I cou'd mention Many other Circomstances which might take up too much of your Time, but I flatter myself this will be Sufficient.

Whatever your Opinion may be on this Head, I shall with Cheerfullness acquiess to, till the Honble the Directors Sentiments are farther known; As I have nothing more at heart than the Good of the Service in Generall, Rank, Precedency, &c., shall be allways laid aside by me, When the Interest of the Whole is the Least in Question.

— FORT ST. GEORGE, APRIL 1752 —

I hope Sir that my falling on this way of Expressing my Sentiments on this Occasion, will not bring me the least under your Disesteem, as I assure you nothing can ad more to my Satisfaction than an Opportunity to shew my Employers how much I have their Interest at Heart, & Convince you that I am with due Respect & Esteem

SIR

Your most Humble & most Obedient Servant

— FORT ST. GEORGE, MAY 1752 —

Petitions of the Casts read.

The subject thereof considerd.

Resolution thereon.

The Petitions of the Right & left hand Casts read, setting forth their respective peculiar Rights & Privileges of passing in Procession to & from Certain Pagodas, & other Places, which Privileges they reciprocally accuse each other of having invaded & broken, Praying such Redress in the Premisses as to us shall seem meet, We have duely weighed & Consider'd the several Allegations in the said Petitions & find that in the year 1728 the Two Casts enter'd into a Written Agreement, limitting & Explaining their Particular Respective Rights & Privileges, which Agreement they both referr to & are willing to abide by, It is therefore AGREED that Notice be given by Beat of Tom Tom, & an order Sign'd by the Secretary affixed to the City Gates, to the following Effect, That in order to prevent any Disputes between the said Casts, & the Encroachment of the one on the Privileges of the other, We do ratify the said Agreement, enter'd into by both Parties in the year 1728, & do strictly enjoin them to conform therto & declare that Each Cast have the Liberty of performing their respective Ceremonies at their Festivals, Weddings & Burials, as has been usual ever since the year 1728 and that neither Cast shall have any claim to the Ground at present the Glacis & Esplanade to the White Town to the Northward & Northwestward of the space commonly call'd the Moratta Ground, laid open at the Time of their Invading this Province, whereon the Houses of both Casts formerly stood but that the same be in common for all Persons of whatsoever Cast or Nation to pass over indifferently & any Person or Persons who shall act contrary to these Regulations shall be severely punished.

The Companys Horse Stables converted into a Timber yard.

A Timber yard being necessary to stow the Companys Timber in and the Horse Stables being the properest Place for that Purpose, ORDERD that they be appropriated to that use.

The Secretary directed to search the Manifests of Silver & Coral, from Europe & the returns made thereon, and demand of the Consignees, if the Full returns have not been made in the Limitted Time, the Reasons why, & report the same to the Board.

As large Quantitys of Silver & Coral have of late years been imported here from Europe, for which the Consigners have entered into Bonds with the Honble Compy. that the full Returns thereof should be made within a limitted Time in Diamonds & other Precious Stones which it is apprehended has not been strictly complied with, ORDERD that the Secretary do examine the Manifest of Silver & Coral Licensed to be exported from Europe and the Returns made thereon, and if it shall appear that the full Returns have not been made thereon in due Time that he do enquire of the Consignees, the Reason that it has not been done, and report the same to the Board.

ORDED'D that the Indents for Wares & Stores for the West Coast be deliverd to the Gentlemen in the several Employs in order to their being comply'd with.

—— FORT ST. GEORGE, MAY 1752 ——

The President acquaints the Board he has reason to hope he shall be able to obtain the same Rents for the several Farms as they produced formerly when this Place was the Seat of the Presidency, except the Beetle & Tobacco Farms, which was well known to be always a hardship on the Farmers, as it never yielded them the Rent they gave.

The President represents his having hopes of letting the Farms, at the Rent, they usually produc'd Except the Beetle & Tobacco.

—— FORT ST. GEORGE, MAY 1752 ——

To the Honble Thomas Saunders Esqr.
President & Governour &ca. Council of Fort St. George.

Honble Sir & Sirs

I take the Liberty of this Address to acquaint your Honour &ca. of the Deficiency in the Honble Companys Rice & Paddy remaining under my Charge in the Export Warehouse, The Particulars of which appears as follows Vizt.

Rice 7. 127¼ at Pags. 75 ℔ Garse, amounts to Pags. 548. 30. 75.
Paddy 7. 8½ @ 40 ℔ do. amounts to Pags. 280. 30. 48.

For the Reasons whereof, I must plead that the Rice havg. been purchased a year since, and receiv'd by Weight instead of Measure, besides it having been remov'd into Three Different Godowns, Your Honour &ca. will be able to form due Judgement of the Deficiency that must unavoidable happen from such Circumstances; And with respect to the Paddy, I hope it may suffice to acquaint you it was mostly consisting of the Poonamalee Crop which having been brought in from the Country perfectly green & in that Condition measur'd & receiv'd into the Warehouse, Your Honour &ca. will easily conceive the Deficiency that must in Consequence arise from its drying and being kept upwards of a year in the Godowns, These Reasons I humbly referr to your Honour &ca. Consideration, and request your permission for Writing off the said Loss.

I am
with the greatest Respect,
Honble Sir & Sirs
Your most Obedt. Humble servant,
Thomas Cooke.

A Letter from Mr. Brohier to the President dated 10th. May being read (as entered hereafter) representing the scantiness of his Allowances which he alledges are very insufficient to defray the Expences necessarily incident to the Employ of Engineer we have committed to his Charge since the Decease of Mr. Robins, and particularly the Inconveniency he labours under for want of proper Accomodations for himself & Assistants to execute the Plans & other Business of his Branch & requesting such additions to his Allowances, as may be sufficient to answer these Purposes, As Mr. Brohier has in all respects behav'd himself agreeable to his Station, & Mr. Robins having recommended not to stint him in his Stipend, Agreed that he be allowed an Addition of 25 Pagodas ℔ Month to his present pay.

Whereupon 25 Pags. ℔ mo. are agreed to be allow'd him, more than prest. Appointments.

Our Honble Masters in their Commands by the Durrington bearing date the 23d. All Carpenters & Smiths Work orderd under Mr. Brohiers management & the materials to be furnish'd out of the Companys Stores.

There being a great scarcity of * Doodoes both here & at the Northern Settlement, whereby the Poor are much distress'd, AGREED if Copper can be purchased this Season at such a Price as that the Company may not suffer any Loss, a sufficient Quantity of Doodoes be coin'd for the use of this Settlement & Vizagapatam.

Doodoes orderd to be coind.

The President acquaints the Board that the Governour of Tranquebar has made Proposals to settle a Cartell for returning Deserters on Condition of Pardon, as it appears to us that such a Treaty must tend greatly to the advantage of Both Settlements, AGREED that it be concluded as soon as conveniently may be and that a Pardon be granted to such of our Deserters as are now at Tranquebar & that they be sent to Fort St. David.

The Employment I have the Honour to serve the Company in, requiring a House not only for myself Clerks & Servants, but also with a proper Room in it for drawing as the Company no doubt will expect very particular Accounts & Drawings of every part of the Fortifications to be built or repaired, And the Appartment I occupy at present, being both insufficient and improper for such purpose, I most humbly take the Liberty to crave an additional Allowance to my Pay (for house Rent) which is already scanty for the Trust you have been pleas'd to honour me with at Mr. Robbins's Decease which then was only augmented to Ten Pagodas ℔ Month.

As I humbly conceive, if they appoint me to the Employment I have the honour to occupy under your kind Patronage, they will have regard to that part of Mr. Robins's Letter, which desire[d] them not to stint me, in my Allowances and hope therefore they will be pleased to augment my pay.

The President acquaints the Board that a Gentleman & Lady by name Monsr. Aubert & Madame Frielle, are lately arrived here from Pondicherry & Claim the Protection of the English Flag, declaring the reason of their Flight from thence, to be the Ill Treatment they have met with from Mr. Dupleix, Tho it behoves us, to be extremely cautious at this Critical Juncture, that we do not give the French any real Cause of Complaint, yet as we apprehend it not only agreeable to the Law of Nations to grant such protection but almost unprecedented to deny it, AGREED that they be receiv'd under the Protection of the English Flag & permitted to reside in this Settlement.

Customs at St. Thomé abolished.

As in good Policy We think we ought by all Justifyable means to prevent our ambitious Neighbours the French rivalling us in Commerce in which we have the sanction of our Honble Employers, It is AGREED that tho we cannot absolutely prohibit their purchasing Goods in our Bounds, yet that it is highly proper to throw every Obstacle we can in their Way & by that means prevent the Delivery of the Goods.

To the Honble Thomas Saunders Esqr.

Presidt. Govr. &ca. Council of Fort St. George.

Honble Sir & Sirs

As the Honourable Company has been pleased to make this Place their head Settlemt. on this Coast, I take the Liberty to represent to you, that the Powder which has hitherto been made at Fort St. David, Bombay or Bengal, has proved extremely bad upon all occasions, by the unskilfulness of the Workmen & the want of proper Mills to make it, An Article of infinite Consequence to the Companys Service, I therefore humbly conceive that it will be necessary to build a Mill here, on the Island where the former stood, and I hope we shall be able to make Powder as good as any in Europe & supply the Honble Companys Settlements in India hereafter with it, Once we have establish'd its Reputation.

I have herewith annexed an Estimate of the Expence in building it for your Approbation.

— FORT ST. GEORGE, MAY 1752 —

I shall take the Liberty to add that some of the Arches of the Bridge leading to Triplicane being tumbled down & the Bridge otherwise in a ruinous Condition requires immediate Repairs, which if not done before next Monsoon it will in all Probability be entirely demolished, An Estimate of the Expence of those Repairs is also here annexed.

I must beg leave to recommend to your favour John de Rose a Hollander who was formerly employd. in making the Powder at Pondicherry and who left that Service on account of some ill usage receiv'd at that Place, He has been in the Companys Settlements upwards of two years, and I beleive him Capable to undertake the Manufactury of the Honble Companys Powder, as fair Promises have not been spar'd to oblige him to return to the French Settlements.

I have the honour to be with profound Respect

HONBLE SIR & SIRS,
Your most humble & most Obedient Servant,
JOHN BROHIER.

The Investmt. taken into Consideration.

The Investment for the present season being now taken into Consideration, and the Honble Companys Directions on that head in the List lately receiv'd perus'd with attention, The Board are of opinion that the insisting on an Abatement in the Prices beforehand with the Merchants, in reality proves of no Advantage, but is a Detriment to the Manufacture, as they generally make up the Difference to themselves, by bringing in bad Cloth. And this it is beleiv'd has in great measure been the cause of the Complaints, in that respect, now receiv'd from Europe, Its therefore judg'd most proper at present to let them Continue providing the Cloth on the same Terms, as last Season, which in the present Situation of the Country, It's imagin'd cannot be esteemd unreasonable, & should any upon sorting turn out inferior to the Musters, that such an abatement be then made as may appear proper, It is also resolv'd that the same be order'd with regard to the Superfine Goods provided by Linga Chittee & Servanah Chittee, The Badness & Dearness of which is particularly remark'd in the aforementiond List of Investment, Wherefore the Export Warehousekeeper is directed to be very careful, in the sorting of those Goods, and report to us, if he finds them not equal to their proper Goodness, ORDERD that the several TRANSLATE FROM THE FRENCH.

The several Corps of Swiss Troops serving in Europe under the French, Spaniards, Sardinians & Dutch, have always been allowed particular Privileges which they have possessed Time immemorial.

THESE PRIVILEGES ARE VIZ[T].

1. To hold within themselves Councils of War which are independant in their Determinations of all Governours of Warlike Places, Generals of Armys & other Superiours and of their own Authority to pronounce sentence of Life & Death on the Criminals brought before them, and cause such sentences to be executed, which Criminals what ever may be the nature of their Crime ought to be & always are deliver'd up to the Swiss Corps, who have a right to require & Claim them from any other Tribunal, The Council of War composed of the Swiss Officers having the sole right to judge of the nature of the Crime committed by any of their Soldiers.

2. To use their own Discipline & inflict their own particular Punishments, at the Will & Pleasure of the Commander of the Corps who if he finds the case of Importance & deserving Death, calls a Council of War, composed of all the Officers of the Corps, which Council is obliged to be governed in their Judgement by the Military Law of the Sovereign whom the Troops serve.

3. The Swiss in whatever Service they may be, have a certain fixt uniform, different from the National Troops and also a particular manner of beating the Drum (excepting that they beat the General & for Battle in the same manner as the National Troops with whom they serve.)

Besides they are allowed the Privilege of exemption from the Dutys laid by the Sovereign on certain Commoditys such as Wine, Provision &c$^{a}$. and that even in preference to the Natives, who are obliged to pay the Dutys to their Sovereign, whilst the Swiss tho Strangers are exempted from it. In all the different Courts of Europe, they are so sensible that every Nation has its particular Genius & so fully convinced of the necessity of disciplining & managing each according to their respective ways of thinking, that the Foreign Regiments, such as Germans, or others, are suffered to enjoy some prerogatives peculiar to themselves as well in France, as in Piedmont & elsewhere, For Example, the Commander of one of these Corps has in himself the power to pardon or cause sentence of Death to be executed on a Criminal, without being obliged to give any reasons for so doing to the Governour of the City, He only asks leave of the Governour to put his Corps under Arms, when sentence is to be executed.

SUPRA CARGO OF SHIP EDGECOTE.

SIR

As it has been represented to the President & Council that the Honble Companys Ship Drake is in a weakly Condition by the Illness of her Officers, Wherefore her proceeding on her Voyage to China, in Company with the Edgecote is a matter of great Importance to the Interest of our Honble Masters; I am directed by them to acquaint you that they judge it highly necessary for the Edgecote to remain here, for the Drake, whose stay will be no longer than the 29th. at Farthest, and would also recommend to you, to keep Company with her during the Passage.

FORT ST. GEORGE I am
26TH. JUNE 1752.

SIR
Your most humble servt.
CHS. BOURCHIER,
Secry.

To THE HONBLE THOMAS SAUNDERS ESQR.
GOVERNOUR & PRESIDENT.

SIR

I have receiv'd your Favour, with the Inclosed from Messrs. Shore & Lockwood, and am very sorry for the Inconveniences Capt. Fisher is under, but am vastly surprized at the Gentlemens desire of detaining the Edgecote & me upon that Account as I do not know they have that authority, and as I have my Honble Masters Interest as much at heart as they can have, 'tis my humble opinion that the sooner I get to China it will be the better for them, and if I am to wait for the Drake, and should any accident happen to the Edgecote, I shall lay the Blame on the Supra Cargo's.

I beg leave to say that a single ship commonly makes a shorter Passage, than when in Company,

I am

SIR
Yr. Obliged & most humble Servt.

The humble Petition of Peter Aldcraft Surgeon

Sheweth

That your Petitioner having had the care of Fifty one soldiers deliver'd on shore at this Place, from the Honble Companys Ship Drake, Capt. Benjamin Fisher, Humbly requests your Honours &ca. will be pleased to give the necessary Directions for his being paid the usual Allowance of Head Money.

And Yr. Petitioner &ca.

To the Honble Thomas Saunders Esqr.
President & Governour &ca. Council of
Fort St. George.

Honble Sir & Sirs

Agreeable to your Orders we have compared the Weights that are now in the Place, with a sett belonging to Captn. Cheyne & what the Company sent out for the use of the Gentlemen in China & find there is a Difference of 3 lb. in every hundred Weight, those now used being so much too heavy, which upon Enquiry we are told, was occasioned by the Clerk of the Markets making use of the Troy Ounce in regulating them last year, instead of the Avoirdupoize; To prevent the like happening in future, We beg leave to recommend to your Honour &ca. to write for some setts of Brass Weights to be kept as a standard, We have directed those now in use at the Gate, & in the Warehouse & storehouse to be immediately regulated, that no time may be lost in weighing off the Cargos of the Drake & Edgecote.

HONBLE SIR

Having the Misfortune of losing my Vessell [in] that Gale of Wind in April 1749 at Sadrass, after the said Vessell had been on shore a Fortnight, I sold her to Mr. [Philip] Dormieuse, second of that Place, for the sum of Four hun[dred] Pagodas, but after the vessell had been in his possession some[time] she was broke to pieces by the surf, and he afterwards insisted [that] it was but four hundred Dollars that he agreed for, but [the] Affidavit that was made before Messrs. HUMBLY CERTIFIED BY

J. BROHIER

Translated from the French:

We the underwritten Swiss Captains in the Service of the Honble East India Company do declare unto all whom it may concern, that having requir'd of Govr. Saunders & Major Kinneer, our Superiours in this Garrison of Madrass, the Privileges which our Nation enjoys in all the Courts where they furnish Troops, Far from having the said Privileges granted us (as was verbally promised us by the Directors who treated in England for the raising our Companys) We have on the contrary been expressly order'd to conform ourselves to the English Rites, Customs & Institutions in relation to the Form & Functions of the Council of War, & also with respect to Prosecutions for Crimes & the Corporal Punishments to be inflicted on the Soldiers of our Companys, who may become liable to Punishment.

IN CONSEQUENCE whereof considering the Direct Breach of our Privileges in this respect, made by our said superious We Capt. Chabbert & Capt. Schaub have protested & do solemnly protest, in presence of the Honble Council Assembled, against the violence done us as aforesaid, Declaring that 'tis in obedience to the express Commands of our Superiours, and without consenting to derogate from any of our Rights & Privileges, that we submit ourselves to [Functions] whereby they are immediately attacked. And we do desire that these Presents may be entered in the Registers of the Honble East India Company, requesting the Honble Council to grant us an Authentick Copy of the said Entry in due form, DONE at FORT ST. GEORGE the 27th. June 1752.

TO THE HONBLE THOMAS SAUNDERS ESQR.

HONBLE SIR & SIRS

During my Residence at Fort St. David in the Honble Companys Service I disbursed four hundred seventy one Pagodas (471) in Repairs on Garden House & Out Offices in order to keep them [from] running to ruin, as can be well attested, which [through] my Indisposition & my time besides being wholly taken up by the President, I forgot to have charged to the Honble Companys Account as usual before my being order'd here on a sudden Dismission [from] their service, however after my Arrival here I apply[d] for Payment, which I thought there could be no manner of Objection to, but was answered that as I [omitted] charging it when it was in my Power I must abide the Loss. This I humbly presume could never be the Intent of the Honble Company on a thing (if they were apprized of it) that they would desire as the Money was, as I have observed, advanced by me for their immediate service and to prevent their suffering by the Ruin of the House & its Offices, which otherwise would have been the case. I therefore humbly beg that your Honour &ca. will take the hardship of this my case into consideration & direct therein as to your Candour & Justice shall seem reasonable & meet. I am with the utmost submission

PRESIDENT & GOVERNOUR &C[A]. COUNCIL OF FORT S[T]. GEORGE.

HONBLE SIR & SIRS

By a Paper receiv'd ℔ Durrington I find there is a little difference in the Assays of our Rupees & Pagodas, tho I cant say more then what has been in the Time of my late Predecessor, however I have made a strict inquiry into it, for sometime past, & find the fault lies in the manner the People belonging to the Mint, melt the silver, which is this, to so many ounces of Fine silver they add so many of Coarse, the Former is put first into the Melting Pot & then the latter, after which they melt them together, but where the fault lies is in their not giving it a proper heat, but only let it just run down, so that it has not a proper fusion & when they come to make it into Powder, the first Ladle full they take out of the Pot must evidently be a little worse then the rest, their is still another thing which their [sic] Guilty of which is in making of the Powder to leave Pieces heavier than a Rupee & so cut of from it to bring it to its proper Weight, now when I make the Assay of this Powder, I take such a Quantity of the smallest Grains and melt them together, so that I have a better chance of meeting with an equal Quantity of what is a little Coarse & what is a little fine, & was I to take any of these large Pieces, it might probably be better or worse and really it was from trying several of these, I found out the Error, & am sorry it is not in my power to rectify it, but you Gentlemen must be sencible that it is impossible to bring these People from what they call Custom. As for the Pagodas they are a trifle better then they ought to be, which proceeds from a Mistake in Casting up the Betterness & Worseness, for you must know every Merchant that coins Gold in our Mint, cast it up or properly allays it himself & in case their is $\frac{1}{8}$ or $\frac{1}{4}$ Difference, he would sooner loose that than melt it down again, because the Expence of melting is more, but in case it is so much worse, he is than under an obligation to do it, for beleive me, I never pass any Pagodas but what is just 80 Touch & Rupees $4\frac{1}{2}$ Better than standard; It is from these things proceeds the Deficiency of our Rupees & Pagodas tho realy it is but a small one, & I am very certain that take one with another they are just.

I am

Oxford cant take in Redwood for the Bay, without endangering the Madeira Wine.

Capt[t]. Stevens having represented against the taking in any Redwood for the Bay, as he must be oblig'd either to remove the Madeira Wine, or Stow the Redwood on it, in the first case, his Owners would become liable to make good all Damages that might happen thró any Accident in altering the Stowage, which therefore has been unusual: In the latter the Weight and pressure of the Wood upon the Casks, he is apprehensive, may be too great a strain, & Occasion Leakage, We are of Opinion that the reasons offered by Capt[t]. Stevens are just, & therefore that the Redwood intended for the Bay be sent by some future Conveyance.

To Mr. Secretary Bourchier.

Sir

In Answer to your Letter, be pleased to acquaint the Honble the Presidt. & Council that being to the No.ward of the Equinoctial, & by our Sea Reckoning in or near the Meridn. of a Sand or Auroe laid down in our Charts to be near the Meridian of Zeloan, In looking out for the same, We discover'd a large Island which upon our sailing close up to, We found to be the Island Pula Nais on the Coast of Sumatra.

The No.West Winds being set in on that shore a Passage hither directly from thence was render'd improbable, without Crossing the Line back again, & running into 7 or 8 Degrees South Latitude, therefore shaping our Course that way, As my People & particularly the Military on board were much afflicted with the scurvy & other Distempers by the Length of our Passage from England, I held it absolutely necessary for the recovery of their Healths to put into Bencoolen, when I came opposite to it, which I accordingly did, & havg. pretty well reestablish'd their Healths by the refreshment, we got there I made the best of my way hither agreeable to my Instructions.

TO THE HONBLE THE PRESIDENT AND COUNCIL AT FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIRS

We receiv'd yours of the 2d. of September O.S. requiring our Reasons for not purchasing six hundred slaves &ca. according to our Instructions from England, the which are as follows.

There had been a Dutch Ship on the Coast about six months before we came and a French ship about nine or ten Months, which had pretty well drain'd them of that Commodity.

Another French Ship was expected in hourly, & by what I could learn there is never less than three or Four Ships a Year on all parts of the Island, which has in a great measure depopulated the Country in regard to Men.

By my Diary it will appear, that we purchased all it was possible to procure within my limited Time, & Ten Days exceeding, & it is Our Opinions, whoever comes after us, will be glad to get the like Number.

We are

SIRS,

August, & acquainting them that the Colchester is not yet arriv'd which will make her dispatch from hence very late. As for the Deficiencys they mention in the Treasure by the Godolphin & Colchester, it is always pack'd in the presence of the Captain or Purser, they must therefore be answerable & requesting they will supply us with what Gun Powder they can spare by the first Opportunity.

Genl. Letters sent Vizt.

AGREED that the followg. Letters be wrote Vizt.

To Fort St. David.

To the Deputy Govr. & Council of Fort St. David to the following Effect, that we have receiv'd their several Letters, the Sloop Charming Fanny, & Ship Delawar are arriv'd here, we can give no directions about repairg. the Fort of Trivedy as it belongs to the Nabob, he & Major Lawrence will probably be there soon, if he should be inclin'd to repair it, to assist him with Artificers & Materials at his Expence, We send the Storehouse Books by the Mamoodie, Our Accomptant wants those of the several Employs at St. David to Ulto. — FORT ST. GEORGE, OCTOBER 1752 —

The Board having, pursuant to their Resolutio[n] in Consultation July 27th. reexamin'd & sorted the Fine Goo[ds] deliver'd in this Season, are of Opinion that most of them are inferiour to muster, & that a proportional Abatem[ent] be made thereon agreeable to a List, now read (as enter'd hereafter) & should the Merchants object thereto, it is thoug[ht] adviseable to try whether other responsible Merchants cannot be introduced, who will provide the fine goods equa[l] to muster on the same Terms as those of this Season.

SIR

In conformity to the Orders I receiv'd from you Sir in the Letter you did me the favour to write me the 15th. of August to give an Account to you yourself whenever any thing of Consequence should happen in the Detachment now at Pondicherry.

The Subject on which I now do myself the honour to write to you is the bad Behaviour of Lieut^t. DeBeck, Who in spite of all the advice he has already had from me, persists in giving the strongest Instances of Disobedience & Mutiny, Instead of trying to repair the Faults he committed during the Passage from Europe to Madrass, & his Extravagances on board the ship wh^h. stopp'd us in this Road, he is endeavouring to compleat the Corruption of those, whose Principles are not yet so debauch'd as his, but this is nothing in Comparison with the rest; He lately gave injurious Treatment, & in the most scandalous manner to a serjeant of my Company, for not having brought him the report the day before; The Serjeant came immediately & made me most bitter Complaints, Telling me that he had serv'd a Considerable Time in Europe, without hav^g. even suffer'd such Usage; that he was not ignorant that he was liable to be chastiz'd when he fail'd in his Duty, & was always ready to receive it with submission, That the Reason he had not waited on M^r. DeBeck (to whom as well as to the other subaltern Officers he being a Prisoner of War, only gave an Account out of Respect to me). The Reason was, that having waited a good while with me to receive some advance money, he went afterwards to exchange [a] Part of it, & immediately distributed it to the soldiers, that besides he had nothing new to acquaint M^r. Debeck with, The serjeant added that in such Circumstances he should have a great many Reflections to make to prevent the Threats, which M^r. DeBeck would not fail to put in Execution was he not perfectly assured, I would hinder the Effect.

Upon the serjeants Complaint I sent one of our Voluntiers to M^r. DeBecks to Call him hither, The Voluntier found him asleep, & told M^r. Wagner who lodges by his room the Message he brought from me; M^r. Wagner thereupon wak'd M^r. DeBeck, telling him that I wanted him, to wh^h. he gave no Answer, But the Voluntier insisting on an Answer, told it him three Times over, & the second Time he reply'd, I will not go; However after he got up, He ask'd M^r. Wagner if M^r. Parrot the Voluntier had not been there to tell him something, pretending no doubt to have been asleep, M^r. Wagner replied that he came to call him to me, to which M^r. DeBeck gave no further Answer, As in the present Case I could not of my own private Authority punish M^r. DeBeck, & on many accounts did not care to speak to M^r. Dupleix, I hasten Sir, to advise you of this Affair, that you may take your measures to prevent the bad Designs of this Officer, Nothing is more pressing, & it will be absolutely necessary he should go out of Pondicherry, unless he could be confin'd there till our Departure, that again would be dangerous, because finding himself under arrest & Conscious of his Guilt, he will not doubt that at the End of the Campaign or on our Return to the Garrison, he must be brought to a Tryal, & besides could he flatter himself with Hopes of Pardon; in Debt as he is, the advantage of the English Pay over the French (I say nothing of the Oath he took to the Directors of the India Company, because such a man pays no regard to his Oath or his Word) This advantage I say not coming fully to him, because it must be divided among his Creditors, he would resolve no doubt to stay with the French, Who thó they hold him in little Esteem might for that very reason hope for some services from him, because he is a Man to stick at Nothing, There is no Doubt but, if you was to ask M^r. Dupleix for M^r. DeBeck He would immediately let him go upon his Parole, as you are absolute Master, & I have nothing to do in the affair, but follow the Orders you will do me the Honour to send me, I shall wait for them impatiently, flattering myself Sir that your Equity will please to give me satisfaction on this Occasion [the] readier as you yourself are insulted in this Affair, since I have the honour to represent the Person to execute your Orde[r] in every thing regarding the Detachment, & that they cann[ot] refuse them, without making themselves Guilty of Disobedie[nce] to You.

I have no further news to acquaint you with I am (except a little Licentiousness now & then which Idleness in a manner authorizes) quite pleas'd with my Detachmt. especially the serjeants who despairing of having it in their Power to give you Proofs of their Zeal, & Attachment to the Honble Company in a more sensible manner, are at least Willing to be useful by preserving the soldiers in the Good Disposition they are in, to be faithful to their Masters.

May I presume to recommend myself to the Continuation of the honour of your Protection, & as long as I live to call myself with the most profound Respect,

SIR

Your most Obedt. humble Servant.

Dominicus assures us, he was often in great danger of being Cut off, with all the factory on shoar at that Island by the Natives, that the slaves on board also made frequent attempts to rise, & — Capt. Dominicus requests a Party of Soldiers, for the Security of the Factory at Madagascar.

HON'D SIR & SIRS

As my Ship was very sickly when at Madagascar last, and in all likelihood may be so again, I should be glad if your Honours would take it into Consideration, whether a Party of Soldiers with an Officer to command them would not be of infinite service, for the security of the Factory on shore (as we are frequently in Danger of being Cut off by the Natives) the Loss of which must inevitably ruin the Voyage, & Put the Ship and Cargoe in great Distress, all which I submit to your Honours Consideration, And am Instructions to Capt. Mainwaring in Case of bad Weather, whilst in the Road.

The season being far advanced, gives us reason to be apprehensive of bad Weather, it is therefore thought necessary that the Commander of the Colchester should repair on board his ship & that he be directed in case the Weather should come on so severe as to render his Continuing in the Road hazardous to put out to Sea, & return again as soon as the Danger be passd, or if that should be impracticable to proceed to such Port, as he may Judge most Convenient, from whence he may get back to this Place as soon as the Season will permit, And a Draught of a Letter to the foregoing Effect being read (as enter'd hereafter) ORDER'D that the Secretary sign the same & deliver it to Capt. Mainwaring.

Abatemt. on the Cloth, at St. David approv'd.

AGREED that we write to the Deputy Govr. & Council of Fort St. David that althó the abatement they have made on their cloth appears very large yet as they represent to us they have in this Affair consider'd both the Company & the Merchants & acted according to Equity, we cannot but approve of what they have done, thó we think milder measures might have proved more effectual than putting it at their Doors, which may prejudice them in their Characters.

The Petition of Stephen Pierce Surgeon of the Delawar being read, setting forth that he is inform'd we intend sending on that ship, one hundred & fifty of the Honble Companys slaves, & praying some recompense for his Care of them in the Passage, more especially as we have not thought proper to make him any extraordinary Allowance for those deliver'd here, AGREED that we cannot take upon us to gratify the Petitioner in his request but that the Affair be recommended to the Consideration of our Honble Masters.

TO CAP$^{T}$. ROGER MAINWARING OF SHIP COLCHESTER.

SIR

The Season being far advanced, which gives us reason to be apprehensive of bad Weather We think it necessary to direct that you keep on Board your Ship, & should there happen any severe Gales of Wind, which may induce you to think it hazardous, to Continue at Anchor in the Road, We would have you in such case put out to Sea, & when the Weather may be clear'd up return here again, but as you may probably find it impracticable, to reach the Place, We leave it to you in those Circumstances to proceed to any Port, you may think safest, & most convenient, & from whence your Getting here will be attended with no Difficulty, as soon as the Season will admit.

— FORT ST. GEORGE, OCTOBER 1752 —

FRIDAY NOVEM$^{R}$. 3$^{D}$.

The Presid$^{t}$. acquaints the Board that all the Ships in the Road having been drove out to sea in the violent Gale which happen'd the 31$^{st}$. Ult$^{o}$. at Night, the reason of his now calling them together is to concert proper Measures on this Calamitous Occasion, And it being consider'd that as no Appearance of any Wreck has been discover'd on the Shore between Sadrass & Pulicat, there is great Reason to hope the ships are safe, especially as the first of the Gale was at N.W$^{t}$. with which 'tis judged they might have gain'd a good Offing before it shifted to the S.E$^{t}$. and in that case they may be expected to return in a few Days, however as it is very probable they have suffered greatly in their Masts & Rigging, & that if the Colchester should have receiv'd much Damage, it will be impracticable to repair her here so as to give her an early dispatch to Europe, it is thought adviseable, if she should return in seven or Eight days to write the Gentlemen at Bengal to send us up a Ship loaded with Grain, to take in the Colchesters Bales, if necessary which can no ways be prejudicial to the Companys Affairs, as she may be return'd to the Bay, supposing there should be no occasion for her here, & we imagine several Ships will remain in India this Season.

The ships drove out of the Road in a storm.

if the Colchester should not return in 7 or 8 days service, & that without our assistce. they are unable to build more, AGREED that such an advance be made them as may be sufficient to proceed in this necessary Work as we shall be under the greatest difficultys for want of Boats should the Ships return shortly into the Road.

Advance to be made the Washers to rebuild their Houses.

The Export Warehousekr. lays before the Board a Petition of the Washers in number 250 setting forth the distress they're under from the Terrible Effects of the late storm, which hath demolish'd & destroy[d] most of their Habitations & praying to be advanced two Pagodas each man towards enabling hem to rebuild their Houses, without which they are utterly incapable of followning their Business, AGREED that the said sum be advanc'd them, as we are very sensible of the Truth & necessity of what they represent.

Some Bales damag'd in the storm to be re-wash'd & Embaled.

The Export Warehousekr. also represents to the Board that several of the Bales which were ready pack'd for shipping on board the Colchester have received damage in the storm by the bursting open of the Doors, & Windows of the Warehouses, untiling of others, & leakage of the Terrasses, ORDER'D that they be rewash'd & Embaled with the greatest Expedition.

The two last Consultations read & signd.

Genl. Letters from Fort St. David read.

No. 174 & No. 175 General Letters from the Deputy Govr. and Council of Fort St. David read, the first dated 27th. Ulto. enclosing a List of shott remaining, and assuring us that the want of Bricks to proceed on the Works has not arisen from any Neglect of the Paymaster, but from the want of Firewood to burn them, that difficulty of procuring cattle to bring them in, to remedy which inconvenience the Paymaster has now purchased a number of Bullock at his own Expence, & promises every thing under his Employ shall be duely furnished, the Camp and Garrison returns shall be drawn out and sent us, The other dated 29th. Ulto. enclosing a General Return of the Military in Camp, & those in Garrison, also a List of Kings Stores left there by Adml. Boscawen, some of the Articles in which are not valued, as they acquaint us they could not come at the Knowledge of the Prices.

Letter from the Danish Missrys.

Agreed to give them the Romish Church at Viparee & five hundred (500) Pagodas

Letter from the Danish Missionarys dated this day read setting forth the House they live in, & assemble their congregation has suffer'd so much from the storm, that they have no Place left to shelter themselves, & the Orphan[s] of their school from the Rain, and praying to be put in Possession of the Romish Church at Viparee, AGREED that the said Church & Appurtenances, be deliver'd over to them for the use of the Protestant Mission, & that the sum of Five hundred Pagodas (500) be also given them agreeable to the Permission of the Honble Court of Directors which we apprehend will be a great means of enabling them to proceed with success in the Salutary Business of their Mission.

—— FORT ST. GEORGE, NOVEMBER 1752 ——

Most of the Companys Buildings having sustain'd great Damage from the Violence of the late storm, ORDER'D that a General Survey be made thereof by the Engineer, & an account of the Expence attending the necessary Repairs laid before the Board. A Survey to be made of all the Companys Buildings.

Money Receiv'd on accot. of the Nabob.

There being a sufficiency of Rupees in the Warehouse, AGREED that such Bonds, as the Honble Court of Directors have order'd to be paid for money lent the Honble Company in that specie be now discharg'd, & that Notice thereof be given to the Proprietors. Bonds for Rupees to be paid off.

AGREED that we write to the Deputy Govr. and Council of Fort St. David, that the account of King Stores they sent, is very imperfect, and leaves us uncertain whether it contain'd the whole of what was left by Admiral Boscawen, or only what remain'd, when the Present Storekeeper took the charge of that Employ, that we observe many articles not priced at all, & others again valued at a most extravagan[t] Rate, particularly a Parcell of Turnpike Sticks, that we insist on a proper List being sent us, with the Prices set against each Article, taking for their Guidance therein the Invoices of such Kind of stores from Europe, and the Opinion of the proper Artificers. Fort St. David to be wrote to.

Bill drawn from Fort St. David

[India Office Typescripts.]

AGREED that we write to the Gentlemen at Fort St. David, that as We observe by Mr. Calls report the Gunpowder made there is greatly below Proof and inferior to that made by the French at Pondicherry it requires their utmost attention that no Care be wanting in the making and preserving it and that none but the best ingredients be used in which case We do not see why it should not be as good as the French, as to what is below Proof of that now in Store, it may be reserved for Salutes, unless it amounts to a large Quantity and then it must be remade. That as We observe large Sums advanced the Military Storekeeper in Pagodas more than We apprehend necessary, an abstract must always be made of the exact amount and no more paid him. The Batta, for which the Nabob is answerable must be Carried to his Account and not to Charges Extraordinary. That We hope they have lost no time in landing the Colchesters Bales, such of which as are damaged must be washed with all possible Expedition.

Fort St. David wrote to.

The President lays before the Board a Letter from Mr. John Brohier containing his Opinion as to the Cause of the Companys Gunpowder being so much inferiour as Mr. Call reports it, to the French Powder made at Pondicherry ORDERED that it be entered after the Minutes of this Consultation.

TO THE HONBLE. THOMAS SAUNDERS ESQR.
PRESIDENT AND GOVERNOUR OF FORT ST. GEORGE.

HONBLE. SIR

Having Examined Mr. John Calls Report of the Proof of Powder to the Honble. Deputy Governour and Council of Fort St. David I humbly conceive that most of the Powder We have in the Magazines, Either at this Place or Fort St. David is inferiour to what the French have in their Settlements, Having proper Mills and people well Skilled in making it, and that the difference which is found upon tryal between our Powder and theirs Proceeds first from the Transport of it by Sea, where it receives some Moisture, and from a Natural Decay by age as it has been some Years in the Companys Magazines, as for the Difference found between the French Powder and ours made in this Country, it is entirely owing to a want of proper Mills, and a Skillfull method of making it.

—— FORT ST. GEORGE, NOVEMBER 1752 ——

After all the Powder is proved it will be necessary to lay aside all the Bad in a Seperate Magazine that when our Mill is Built the Ingredients may be well beaten and the Powder made again

I am with Profound respect

HONBLE. SIR
Your most humble and most Obedient Servant
J : BROHIER.

FORT ST. GEORGE

HUMBLY SHEWETH

THAT having adjusted and settled all the Accounts of the Estate of the said Mr. Luis de Medeiros, She thereby is become the principal Proprietor of two Interest Bonds on the Honble. Company, one of twenty five thousand Pagodas, and the other of fifteen thousand Pagodas which two sums amounting together to the Sum of Forty thousand Pagodas, Your Petitioner Humbly Prays Your Honours will be pleased to order the payment of, with the Interest that is due thereon, And in case the Principal cannot be paid at present, Your Petitioner prays Your Honours to Order the Payment of the Interest due on the abovementioned two Bonds, being otherwise incapable to settle her own Affairs, which to her great Prejudice have now been depending for several Years as also to pay off a Sum in which other Persons are Jointly Interested with her in the said Bonds.

AND Your Petitioner as in duty Bound shall ever Pray.

TO THE HONBLE. THOMAS SAUNDERS ESQR.
PRESIDENT AND GOVERNOR &CA. COUNCIL OF FORT ST. GEORGE.

The humble Petition of the Executors to the last Will and Testament of Coja Petrus Uscan Deceased, fr. Severino de Savoya Cap. Mis. Apestolico.

HINISCAN LUCAS
JOANNES EVANGETHO

SHEWETH

That the Deceased Coja Petrus Uscan late Inhabitant of this place a great many years had some time before his death purchased a piece of Ground from its proper Owner in a place called Vapery situated to the Westward of the Town (as per Bill of Sale thereof issued out of the Choultry Court will more plainly appear) and Built upon it a Small Church or Chappel designed for his Monument, the administration of which did always before and after his Decease without any intermission Run through the hands of the Capuchin Fryars of this Place, and by his last Will, he Ordained his Body to be interred in the said Chappel agreeable to his intention of Erecting it for that Purpose in his Life time, and has Given and bequeathed it, with all the buildings and appurtenances thereunto belonging to the said Capuchins and their Successors for a perpetual Donation, leaving at the same time a Sufficient Sum for a Fund towards keeping it in Repairs, as also to say a Mass in the said Chappel every Day and other Offices of the Dead, which have been Effectually Comply'd with hitherto; and by Consent and Permission of the late Deputy Governour Mr. Prince, the said Padres have been put in possession thereof, and Enjoyed it Peacefully for above one Year and half. Your Petitioners are now inform'd That Your Honour &ct. are pleased to deprive and Exclude them from it in Order to give [it] to the Danish Padres; It will be an act quite Opposite to the intent and last Will of the Testator, and must Consequently Render Us impossible to administer or Officiate in the very Chappel according to the Rites of the Roman Church, in which Religion the deceased lived and died, The Premises are Motives that induce us (as Executors, Constituted by the said Testator) to Represent to Your Honour &ct. Council and at the same time We humbly Crave, You will be pleased to Revoke that Order, and take into Your Serious Consideration the many Services rendered by the Deceased to the Honourable Company and the great Regard he always bore to the English Nation, having Suffered on that account Considerable Losses, and underwent many hardships.

But in Case that Order is from Europe We humbly pray your Honour &ca. Council will be pleased to Suspend the Execution thereof, and Grant Us leave to have recourse thither, We are in great hopes You'll be pleased to Vouchsafe Us this favour.

And as in Duty bound shall Ever Pray

That Your Petitioners having been acquainted on the seventh day of November by the Secretary of the Council, that the Honble. Company had been Pleased to Order that the Bond of thirty thousand Arcot Rupees due to Mr. Luis de Medeiros deceased should be paid with the Interest due thereon; And as this Sum is design'd for a perpetual fund to the memory of the Deceased Your Petitioners Pray that your Honours would be pleased to receive the said sum of thirty thousand Arcot Rupees into the Honble. Companys Cash again at Interest, and to give to the said Executors a new obligation thereof, and to pay them the Interest due on the former Bond; And Your Petitioners further pray that the Interest of the new bond may be paid Yearly to the Reverend Pardre Severino de Seboya Capuchin, or to whom shall represent the said Bond, with a Power of the Executors to the Estate of Mr. Medeiros deceased to be disposed thereof according to the intention of Testator.

Instant, enclosing a report of the Officers of the Colchester, of the Condition they find [the bales in] on Board that ship [(vizt. much] damag'd & beginning to [heat) & ] acquainting us [that in] Consequence thereof they had order'd them to be landed with the greatest Expedition, that they have sent off a best Bow[er] Anchor, & shall omit no means in their Power that may contribute to the preservation of the ship & Cargo, The other is dated 9th. THOMAS SAUNDERS ESQR. GOVR. & PRESI[DT.]

CHARLES BODDAM. HENRY POWNEY.
ALEXR. WYNCH. JOHN SMITH.

Last Consultation read & sign'd.

Genl. Letter from Fort St. David read.

No. 181, 182, 183, 184 General Letters from the Deputy Govr. and Council of Fort St. David read, the first dated 11th. Instant, excusing the Military St[orekr.] for the improper valuation of Stores left by Adml. Boscawen, which he did according to the best Information he could get and that the Turnpike sticks were valued at the same Rate [as] some sent from hence, and acquainting us that they had appointed a Committee, to set a proper Price on the several Articles, That the Weather having been rainy, only four hu[ndd.] Bales are as yet landed out of the Colchester, of which no mo[re] than Ten are good, the rest being so Watersoken & discoloured that it will be necessary to rewash them, and they are apprehen[sive] a great part will prove rotten, they also advise that they have drawn on us, for fifteen thousand, three hundred, & forty [two] Rupees, two anaes & four Pice (15342. 2. 4) payable to the Honble Thomas Saunders Esqr. or order value rec'd into the Honble Companys Cash of Robt. Sloper, And the last dated 22d. Isntt., acquainting us that the Badness of the Wea[ther] has prevented them from getting all the Bales ashore from the Colchester, and as they shall be in great want of Washers, they request we will send them such as we can spare, and they now forward us the Nabobs Accot. Currt. to Ulto. October and their Consultations for last Month.

Fort St. David to be wrote to.

Agreed that we write to the Deputy Govr. & Council of Fort St. David that if the Military Storekr. in valueing the Turnpike sticks had given the least Attention, he must have perceiv'd those that were valued here, and by which he guided his Judgement were whole Turnpikes, & not single sticks, that instead of the Nabobs Accot. Currt. which they have sent us, we want the General Account with him, since the Troops went first abroad in his service containing every Particular, and that he must be credited for such of the stores as are return'd, that they supply Capt. Mainwaring, with whatever he may want out of the Honble Companys Stores for refitting his Ship, that we shall discharge the Bills they have drawn on us & furnish them with Cash, as soon as we have it in our Power, that we cannot spare any Washers having no more than the Business of this Settlement absolutely requires.

— FORT ST. GEORGE, NOVEMBER 1752 —

The Colchester to [be] repair'd without Loss of Time, & that the Capt. be furnished with what he may want, out of the stores [at] Fort St. David.

As the Weather seems to be set in fair, we think no time should be lost in repairing the Damage the Colchester has suffer'd ORDERD that the Secretary acquaint Capt. Mainwaring desires, that the Bengal Packet for Europe may be landed & the Box opened, but not the Letter without our Orders, that we would have them call Capt. Mainwaring before them, to know when he imagines his Ship will be in readiness to receive on board a Cargo for Europe, that if they had taken the Trouble to inspect the Military Storekrs. Books they would have found the particulars [of] the Nabobs Account under the Head of Expedition to Trichinopoly, from whence Genl. Letter from Deve-Cotah read.

No. 191 From Mr. John Pybus at DeveCotah dated 9th. Instant, enclosing the Accounts of that Settlement for last Month, & acquainting us that having observed great part of the Bounds lay uncultivated, tho very good Ground he found on Enquiry the Reason of it to be that the Renters expected the same Customs from such Ground as might be newly clear'd, as for that which had been already till'd. He had therefore to encourage the Cultivation order'd that any Person undertaking the same should be entitled to the first years Crop free of Custom, but that the Renters seem to think themselves injured. Mr. O'Hara from St. David & Mr. Knapton from the No. ward to be order'd hither to attend the Works.

Mr. John Brohier being much indisposed and thereby incapable of attending the Works so closely as we think necessary for conducting them properly, it is AGREED to send for Mr. O'Hara from St. David & Mr. Knapton from the Northward to supervise & carry them on under Mr. Brohiers Direction.

Genl. Letters read vizt. from Ingeram. No. 193 From Mr. Foss Westcott at Ingeram dated 21st. Ulto. acquainting us that the French Chief and Council at Metchlepatam had return'd unopen'd the answer he sent them as mention'd in his last Letter, concerning Cunshum Connahs Vessell, accompany'd by a Letter from their Secretary, giving as the reason for so doing, that the Direction was improper, the Title of Chief & Council being insufficient, and that they can take no Cognizance of it, unless addressed thus " To Mr. De Maracin Councellor of the Indies, Commander, " for the King of Mazulipatam, and its Dependencies, and President of the " Provincial Council, and to the Gentlemen of Council at Mazulipatam ", that as they never before hesitated at receiving Letters, address'd by the Title of Chief &ca., He apprehends such a Direction as they require, would be construed Acknowledgement of their Legal Possession of Diu Island, which they reckon among the Dependencies of Metchlepatam, he therefore desires our Directions.

Mr. Palk, the Paragraph they sent us relating to him, but that we have a vacancy for him here by the Death of the Revd. Mr. Colefax, if he Chuses it; That the supply of Gun Powder they intend us will be very seasonable, and we desire they will continue to assist us with all they can spare, that till we hear how the Gentlemen at the Bay intend to dispose of their Tonnage, we cannot say whether we shall have any on hand, but as soon as we can we shall advise the Gentlemen at Tellicherry, And
